Failure-Sparked Innovation Kaury C. Edwards,2023-10-31 As the western church faces challenges in declining membership and effectiveness due to religious disaffiliation and general discontent with organized religion innovation must be a central focus within all aspects of ministry in the Christian church With the focus that the local church must put on innovation one aspect that will continually be an important factor is how the church understands interprets and utilizes failure Yes the church must fail However the church must not simply fail for the sake of failure The challenge for the local church is to rethink its notion of failure which will allow for creativity new life and ultimately transformational innovation By establishing a proper framework and definition of failure the church will be able to embrace good failure and the benefits it can offer

The University and the Global Knowledge Society David John Frank,John W. Meyer,2020-05-19 This book examines the core changes in the nature status and significance of the university over the last century Having grown in numbers reach and scope the university has seen sweeping expansion and has become central in a contemporary global society built on liberal and neoliberal institutions David Frank and John Meyer begin by describing the university s expansion focusing especially on global diffusion They then examine the transformation of university knowledge illustrating the ways in which standardized and scientific knowledge now reaches into more sectors of everyday life This leads them to discuss the porous interface between the university and society They suggest that there are now essentially no social problems that the university should not responsibly address The result is a society dependent on credentials and cultural content provided by the university and in the final chapter of the book the authors reflect on what it means to exist in this knowledge society
