Asian Art History in the Twenty-first Century Vishakha N. Desai,2007 This text explores the field of Asian art and its historiography tensions and possible future directions It features essays by 14 leading authors specializing in Chinese East Asian Indian and Japanese art history and considers what is meant by Asian art and how it should be understood in relation to geopolitics In the Wake Anne Nishimura Morse,Anne E. Havinga,2015 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston April 5 July 12 2015 Street and Studio Tate Modern (Gallery),2008-09 The photographic portrait has two parallel histories that run side by side from the birth of photography to the twenty first century one of portraits made in the studio the other of those taken in the street The advent of small easily concealed cameos allowed photographers to capture subjects in the street unaware In contrast the studio offered the opportunity to present carefully composed images to the world making use of the elaborate staging and technical devices at the photographer s disposal With celebrities today expected to pose for the paparazzi in the street and the studio being used increasingly for informal and intimate shots these traditions have been subverted Accompanying a major exhibition at Tate Modern Street Studio explores the fascinating contrasts tensions and connections between these two traditions BOOK JACKET In Numbers Victor Brand,2009 In Numbers is a survey of serial publications dating from 1955 To The present day that have been produced by artists from around the world Amid historical groundswells like the rise of the little press in the 1960s The correspondence art movement of the early 1970s And The DIY culture of zines in the 1980s and early 1990s professional artists have seized on the format of magazines and postcards as sites for a new kind of art production These are not publications that feature news items criticism manifestos or reproductions of artworks but are themselves artworks often collaborative and idiosyncratic In large part they are produced by younger artists operating at the peripheries of mainstream art cultures or by established artists looking for an alternative To The marketplace This publication is the first volume to define an overlooked art form that is neither artists book nor ephemera but entirely its own unique object This survey includes Raymond Pettibon s Tripping Corpse Maurizio Cattelan s Permanent Food and many other contemporary examples such as North Drive Press and Continuous Project Approximately 60 publications are surveyed in total In Numbers documents the history of each publication its inception production distribution and significance together with a thorough completely illustrated bibliography for each title Co published with PPP Editions New York English text Art and AsiaPacific ,2009 Art AsiaPacific Almanac ,2008 Tribune for Victory and Socialism ,2006 The Art Quarterly of the National Art Collections Fund ,2005 The Domestic Interior and the Self in Contemporary Photography Jane Simon,2023-09-18 By carefully conceptualising the domestic in relation to the self and the photographic this book offers a unique contribution to both photography theory and criticism and life narrative studies Jane Simon brings together two critical practices into a new conversation arguing that artists who harness domestic photography can advance a more expansive understanding of the autobiographical Exploring the idea that self representation need not equate to self portraiture or involve the human form artists from around the globe are examined including Rinko Kawauchi Catherine Opie Dayanita Singh Moyra Davey and Elina Brotherus who maintain a personal gaze at domestic detail By treating the representation of interiors domestic objects and the very practice of photographic seeing and framing as autobiographical gestures this book reframes the relationship between interiors and exteriors public and private and insists on the importance of domestic interiors to understandings of the self and photography The book will be of interest to scholars working in photographic history and theory art history and visual studies *Araki. nobility caught up the maelstrom of the Bolshevik Revolution and the creation of Stalin's Russia. It is a book filled with chilling tales of looted palaces, burning estates, desperate flights in the night from marauding bands of thugs and Red Army soldiers, of imprisonment, exile, and execution. It is the story of how a centuries-old elite, famous for its glittering wealth, its service to the empire, its promotion of the arts and culture, was dispossessed and destroyed along with the rest of old Russia. Drawing on the private archives of two great families, the Sheremetovs and the Golitsyns, it is also a story of survival and accommodation of how many of the tsarist ruling class, so-called former people, managed to find a place for themselves and their families in the hostile world of the Soviet Union. It reveals too how even at the darkest depths of the terror, daily life went on: men and women fell in love, children were born, friends gathered. Ultimately, Former People is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit.
