This Lanzi s work features the history of painting in Italy from the period of the revival of the fine arts to the end of the 18th century The method that the author applies in treating of each school is as follows he first gives a general character of each school then he distinguishes it into three four or more epochs according as its style underwent changes with the change of taste A few celebrated painters who have swayed the public taste and given a new tone to the art are placed at the head of each epoch He has also taken notice of some arts which are analogous to painting and though they differ from it in the materials employed or the manner of using them may still be included in the art for example engraving of prints inlaid and mosaic work and embroidering tapestry The author commences by treating in the two first volumes of that part of Italy which through the genius of Da Vinci Michelangelo and Rafael became first conspicuous and first exhibited a decided character in painting Those artists were the ornaments of the Florentine and Roman schools from which he proceeds to two others the Sienese and Neapolitan About the same time Giorgione Tiziano and Correggio began to flourish in Italy three artists who as much advanced the art of coloring as the former improved design and of these luminaries of Upper Italy are treated in the third and fourth volumes Then follows the school of Bologna in which the attempt was made to unite the excellences of all the other schools this commences the fifth volume and on account of proximity it is succeeded by that of Ferrara and Upper and Lower Romagna The school of Genoa which was late in acquiring celebrity succeeds and the book is concluded with that of Piedmont which though it cannot boast so long a succession of artists as those of the other states has merits sufficient to entitle it to a place in a history of painting
