Papua New Guinea The Land And The People:

Food and Agriculture in Papua New Guinea R. Michael Bourke, Tracy Harwood, 2009-08-01 Agriculture dominates the rural economy of Papua New Guinea PNG More than five million rural dwellers 80% of the population earn a living from subsistence agriculture and selling crops in domestic and international markets Many aspects of agriculture in PNG are described in this data rich book Topics include agricultural environments in which crops are grown production of food crops cash crops and animals land use soils demography migration the macro economic environment gender issues governance of agricultural institutions and transport The history of agriculture over the 50 000 years that PNG has been occupied by humans is summarised Much of the information presented is not readily available within PNG The book contains results of many new analyses including a food budget for the entire nation The text is supported by 165 tables and 215 maps and figures

Highland Peoples of New Guinea Paula Brown, 1978-06-30 Fifty years ago the New Guinea highlands were isolated and unknown to outsiders As the highland peoples of New Guinea are among the last large groups to be brought into the world community they are of major interest to ecologists social anthropologists and cultural historians This study synthesises previous anthropological research on the New Guinea highland peoples and cultures and demonstrates the interrelations of ecological adaptation population and society In describing analysing and comparing the technology culture and community life of peoples of the highland and the highland fringe Professor Brown shows the special character of these societies which have developed in isolation In addition to examining the unique regional development of the New Guinea highland peoples this book a study in ecological and social anthropology brings together theses two analytical fields and demonstrates their interrelationships

Land, Indigenous Peoples and Conflict Alan C. Tidwell, Barry Scott Zellen, 2015-10-05 Land Indigenous Peoples and Conflict presents an original comparative study of indigenous land and property rights worldwide The book explores how the ongoing constitutional legal and political integration of indigenous peoples into contemporary society has impacted on indigenous institutions and structures for managing land and property This book details some of the common problems experienced by indigenous peoples throughout the world providing lessons and insights from conflict resolution that may find application in other conflicts including inter state and civil and sectarian conflicts An interdisciplinary group of contributors present specific case material from indigenous land conflicts from the South Pacific Australasia South East Asia Africa North and South America and northern Eurasia These regional cases discuss issues such as modernization the evolution of systems and institutions regulating land use access and management and the resolution of indigenous land conflicts drawing out common problems and solutions The lessons learnt from the book will be of value to students researchers legal professionals and policy makers with an interest in land and property rights worldwide

The Report: Papua New Guinea 2020 Oliver Cornock, The economic downturn resulting from lower global commodity prices and the completion of the PNG LNG project means the future of Papua New Guinea must be navigated with care The country possesses plentiful natural resources which given effective management could provide new revenue to spur diversification as well as sustainable and equitable growth in all provinces Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26 This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first hand field work and research accounts It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47 000 years of a self sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world namely Australia the UK EU and the U S as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization Trump ism and royal governance Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc This assessment and book is the first of its kind also employing modern data analysis Landscape Ecology principles patterns and processes telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems GIS with Open Access data focusing on ecological economics marxism socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis Papua New Guinea Conservation Needs Assessment ,1993
