RESUMEN: Este trabajo pretende identificar las debilidades y mutaciones del proyecto de transición iniciado en el Paraguay con el golpe militar de 1989, así como también señalar aquellos elementos que a lo largo de veinte años permitieron la continuidad de las estructuras y las prácticas autoritarias originadas en la dictadura. Que la victoria y el advenimiento del gobierno de la Alianza Patriótica para el Cambio (APC) en el 2008 significan una ruptura con las bases de la transición y alteraron el rumbo del proceso político transformando los espacios estratégicos de disputa e incorporando nuevas temáticas y actores.

Esta descripción pretende afirmar que el proceso político del Paraguay es un caso que demuestra como los cambios constitucionales, la implantación de nuevas instituciones y sanción de singulares normas de contenido democrático no implican automáticamente el fin de la transición de un régimen autoritario hacia otro democrático y el advenimiento de su consolidación.

Palabras clave: Paraguay, democracia, transición, consolidación.

ABSTRACT: This paper aims to identify weaknesses and mutations of the transition project started in Paraguay with the military coup of 1989 and also identify those elements that over twenty years allowed the continuity of the structures and practices originating in the authoritarian regime. That victory and the advent of the Patriotic Alliance for Change (APC) in 2008 meant a break with the foundations of the transition and altered the course of the political process transforming the strategic areas of dispute and incorporating new issues and actors.

This description is intended to affirm that the political process of Paraguay is a case that demonstrates how the constitutional changes, the introduction of new institutions and unusual punishment of democratic content standards do not automatically lead to the transition from an authoritarian to a democratic and advent of consolidation.

Key words: Paraguay, democracy, transition, consolidation.
