Quartered Sea:

The Quartered Sea Tanya Huff, 2015-11-03 Fourth in the epic fantasy series from the author of No Quarter Good reading in the same vein as Mercedes Lackey's The Last Herald Mage series Locus Benedikt can control the element of water through music but water is the only element Benedikt can sing which isolates him from his fellow bards When the queen of Shkoder outfits a voyage to discover the lands across the sea against the Bardic captain's objections Benedikt is the only bard willing to brave the captain's wrath and volunteer In uncharted waters a storm strikes and the high of the deep seas rises All of Benedikt's skill is unable to save ship or crew Shipwrecked in an unfamiliar country and unable to send word to Shkoder of the ship's fate Benedikt must play the part he's been given a pawn in the game of politics and religion between brother and sister who both intend to use his song to their advantage As the queen waits for word the high of the deep seas rises again Praise for the Quarters series I love the way Huff writes She creates rich complex fantasy worlds populates them with likeable characters includes lots of humor and action bright lively dialogue and in this case an all's well that ends well ending that is perfect Unputdownable Voya A richly complex story set in a magical world that could almost be a part of our own history Science Fiction Chronicle This isn't fluff and it isn't light but it has so much heart to leaven its dark moments The Magazine of Fantasy and Science Fiction
