Comparing Tort and Crime Matthew Dyson,2015-07-02 The fields of tort and crime have much in common in practice particularly in how they both try to respond to wrongs and regulate future behaviour Despite this commonality in fact fascinating difficulties have hitherto not been resolved about how legal systems co ordinate or leave wild the border between tort and crime What is the purpose of tort law and criminal law and how do you tell the difference between them Do criminal lawyers and civil lawyers reason and argue in the same way Are the rules on capacity consent fault causation secondary liability or defences the same in tort as in crime How do the rules of procedure operate for each area Are there points of overlap When how and why do tort and crime interact This volume systematically answers these and other questions for eight legal systems England France Germany Sweden Spain Scotland the Netherlands and Australia SEC Docket United States. The Dialectic of the Holy Robert E. Meditz,2016-09-12 This is the first published book length treatment on Paul Tillich and Judaism which is a neglected aspect of Tillich s thought It has three compelling features First pivotal biographical details show the importance of Judaism for Tillich and that he ardently opposed anti Semitism before WWII and after the Holocaust Second Tillich s theological method is examined in key primary sources to show how he maintains continuity between Judaism and Christianity The primary source analysis includes his 1910 and 1912 dissertations on Schelling the 1933 The Socialist Decision the 1952 Berlin lectures on the Jewish Question and his final public lecture on the importance of the history of religion for systematic theology Particular attention is paid to his dialectical and theological history of religion Third Tillich s positive theology of Judaism contrasts sharply with the many complex negative ways in which Judaism is portrayed in Western thought This contributes significantly to our understanding the evolving history of Christian anti Judaism
