Foreign Affairs and National Defense Division,1979      Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace, Second Edition Laura Zittrain Eisenberg,Neil Caplan,2010-07-14 Thoroughly updated and expanded this new edition of Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab Israeli conflict and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that seem to repeatedly derail efforts to achieve peace In a lively and accessible style Laura Zittrain Eisenberg and Neil Caplan examine eight case studies of recent Arab Israeli diplomatic encounters from the Egyptian Israeli peace of 1979 to the beginning of the Obama administration in light of the historical record By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits this book makes possible a coherent comparison of over sixty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and gives readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future      Palestinian

Bowker,1988      De Facto States and Land-for-Peace Agreements Eiki Berg,Shpend Kursani,2021-12-21 This book presents an analytical framework which assesses how land for peace agreements can be achieved in the context of territorial conflicts between de facto states and their respective parent states The volume examines geographic solutions to resolving ongoing conflicts that stand between the principle of self determination prompted by de facto states and the principle of territorial integrity prompted by parent states The authors investigate the conditions under which territorial adjustments can bring about a possibility for peace between de facto states and their parent states It does so by interrogating the possibility of land for peace agreements in four de facto state parent state pairs namely Kosovo Serbia Nagorno Karabakh Azerbaijan Northern Cyprus Republic of Cyprus and Abkhazia Georgia The book suggests that the value that parties put on land to be exchanged and peace to be achieved stand at odds for land for peace agreements to materialise The book brings theoretical and empirical insights that open several avenues for discussions on the conservative stance that the international community has held on territorial changes in the post 1945 international order This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding state formation secessionism political geography and international relations In Search of a Peace Settlement M.
