The Azure Rose Reginald Wright Kauffman, 1919 The Gyroscopic Transformation of Self Quest in W. B. Yeats's Poetry Özlem Saylan, 2019-01-17

Carrying a story to tell is the ancient burden of craftsmen and it is one of the characteristics of the quest to find oneself since a journey requires recognition of the aspects of self and anti self Like the speaker of his poems W B Yeats has something to tell His poetry draws nourishment from the battle between the dichotomies of self and anti self human and divine mind and intellect past and present and body and soul This book covers a selection of Yeats's poems from 1889 to 1939 discussing them within the frame of the quest to find oneself and its gyroscopic transformation The book illustrates that self is not a single entity but has multiple layers and it can be found within the quest in which it experiences a simultaneous transformation with every phase of the antithetical structure of gyroscopic movements In addition the way of the quest is cyclical however it is not a vicious cycle since in life every end is a phase of a beginning and every beginning is a phase of an end
