Quest For Gender Justice A Critique Of:

Quest for Gender Justice Sebastia L. Raj,1991 Muslim Women's Quest for Gender Justice Mengia Hong Tschalaer,2017-07-04 Discusses the claim that understanding the legal world as plural is an important starting point to think about women s access to justice In Search of Gender Justice Jessica Johnson,2018-11 Focusing on Malawi Johnson proposes a shift in emphasis to gender justice as an alternative to human and women s rights Quest for Gender Justice Selva J. Raj,1995-09-01 Human Health and Forests Carol J. Pierce Colfer,2012-05-04 Hundreds of millions of people live and work in forests across the world One vital aspect of their lives yet largely unexamined is the challenge of protecting and enhancing the unique relationship between the health of forests and the health of people This book written for a broad audience is the first comprehensive introduction to the issues surrounding the health of people living in and around forests particularly in Asia South America and Africa Part I is a set of synthesis chapters addressing policy public health environmental conservation and ecological perspectives on health and forests including women and child health medicinal plants and viral diseases such as Ebola SARS and Nipah Encephalitis Part II takes a multi lens approach to lead the reader to a more concrete and holistic understanding It features case studies from around the world that cover important issues such as the links between HIV AIDS and the forest sector and between diet and health Part III looks at the specific challenges to health care delivery in forested areas including remoteness and the integration of traditional medicine with modern health care The generous use of boxes with specific examples adds layers of depth to the analyses The book concludes with a synthesis designed for use by practitioners and policymakers to work with forest dwellers to improve their health and their ecosystems This book is a vital addition to the knowledge base of all professionals academics and students working on forests natural resources management health and development worldwide Published with CIFOR and People and Plants International What Men Owe to Women John C. Raines,Daniel C. Maguire,2001-01-11 Men from a wide range of traditions discuss gender justice in world religions Mission, Dialog und Friedliche Koexistenz - Mission, Dialogue, and Peaceful Co-Existence Andrea König,2010 Dieser Sonderband beinhaltet die Vorträge von 26 Theologinnen und Theologen aus 12 verschiedenen Ländern die sich zu einer einwöchigen Internationalen Sommerschule an der Universität Regensburg versammelten um darüber nachzudenken wie sich Mission und friedliche Koexistenz miteinander vereinbaren lassen Eine zu beobachtende Zunahme nationalistischer und fundamentalistischer Strömungen in vielen asiatischen Ländern in denen Christen weitgehend Minderheiten darstellen aber auch einige Entwicklungen in Deutschland wie Säkularisierung und Migrantenbewegung zeigen die Dringlichkeit der Auseinandersetzung mit dieser Thematik Die Beiträge dieses Bandes reflektieren Themengebiete wie Bildung kulturelle und Historie Teilnehmer und Autoren sind überwiegend Schüler und Schülerinnen des Regensburger Systematikers Hans Schwarz dessen Arbeitsgebiete sich in den einzelnen Themengebieten widerspiegeln The special volume in the series Glaube und Denken contains papers presented by 26 theologians from 12 different countries The authors convened at the university of Regensburg for a week long International Summer School They pondered how mission and peaceful co existence can be achieved under newly emerging conditions They observed a rise of nationalistic and fundamentalist currents in many Asian countries in which Christians are often a minority Furthermore developments in Germany such as secularization and the increasing number of believers of other religions through the influx of immigrants show the urgency to reflect on this new situation The collected papers touch topics such as education ecumenism and history Most of the participants are students of the Regensburg systematic theologian Hans Schwarz whose special fields of interest are mirrored in these topics

Feminist Advocacy and Gender Equity in the Anglophone Caribbean Michelle V.

Rowley,2013-05-13 This book uses the Anglophone Caribbean as its site of critique to explore two important questions within development studies First to what extent has the United Nations call to implement gender mainstreaming projects resulted in the realization of gender equity for women within developing societies Second does gender mainstreaming have the conceptual operational and technical capacities to address the centrality of the body in 21st century lobbies for gender equity In answering these questions Rowley examines such issues as reproductive rights and equity sexual harassment and sexual minorities rights

The African Renaissance and the Afro-Arab Spring Charles Villa-Vicencio,Erik Doxtader,Ebrahim

Moosa,2015-04-22 The African Renaissance and the Afro Arab Spring addresses the often unspoken connection between the powerful call for a political cultural renaissance that emerged with the end of South African apartheid and the popular revolts of 2011 that dramatically remade the landscape in Egypt Libya and Tunisia Looking between southern and northern Africa the transcontinental line from Cape to Cairo that for so long supported colonialism its chapters explore the deep roots of these two decisive events and demonstrate how they are linked by shared opposition to legacies of political economic and cultural subjugation As they work from African Islamic and Western perspectives the book s contributors shed important light on a continent s difficult history and undertake a critical conversation about whether and how the desire for radical change holds the possibility of a new beginning for Africa a beginning that may well reshape the contours of global affairs

Black Intimacies Shirley Ann Hill,2005 In Black Intimacies A Gender Perspective on Families and Relationships Shirley A Hill applies a gender lens to the multiple systems of oppression that have shaped the lives of African American women and men She challenges the image of a monolithic black population a legacy of the civil rights movement that she argues is impossible to sustain in the postmodern era Through a critique of intersectionality theory Hill examines the ways in which gender has affected experiences of intimacy family relationships child rearing and motherhood for contemporary African Americans Drawing on ethnographic material interviews and scholarly research Hill s work rethinks the cultural and historical definitions of black identity and reconceptualizes the various forms of oppression faced by black women This book will be useful to students and instructors of African American Studies Gender Studies Sociology Anthropology Marriage and Family and Social Work

Liberting Black Theology Demaine Solomons,Eugene Baron,2024-02-14 Current debates on decolonisation call for academic disciplines including the practitioners of Black theology to reflect on its content and curriculum This edited volume actively engages in these ongoing dialogues specifically addressing the pertinence of a Black theology of liberation within the postapartheid landscape It not only delves into the historical underpinnings of this theological framework but also endeavours to establish a conceptual framework for assessing its significance within the current discourse on decolonising theological disciplines In addition to shedding light on the historical importance of Black theology the late Vuyani Vellem poses a crucial question What lessons has Black theology yet to learn This inquiry by emerging South African scholars serves as a guide for navigating the path forward in developing this theological perspective Beyond emphasising the historical context the volume aims to contribute to broader discussions about social cohesion in South Africa where conflicting socio political narratives persist This work adds to the theoretical development by grappling with the history of Black theological thought and influences contemporary engagements with theology Its impact spans various levels encompassing the reconsideration of Black theology s influence on race gender politics community development and more Ultimately this volume serves as a catalyst for understanding and reshaping the discourse on Black theology offering valuable insights for navigating the complexities of theological thought in today s diverse and evolving landscape

The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake

Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people s room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside

Decolonising International Relations Nirmal Jindal, Kamal Kumar, 2025-09-12 This volume critically analyses the theories and concepts of international relations IR which will be instrumental in understanding IR from a non western perspective Owing to its emphasis on the need to decolonise the discipline of IR alternate perspectives from the global South have been explored and discussed in detail The book provides new insights to make the discipline more inclusive universal and contributory to world peace and security It lucidly enumerates on the concepts of state sovereignty power conflict security diplomacy human rights development market inequalities and migration from a non Eurocentric lens bringing distinct perspectives and experiences to the fore Expanding on the Indian foreign policy of Vasudev Kutumbakam it highlights India s policy of multi alliances and multilateralism and also refers to India s contributions during the COVID 19 pandemic and its drive to champion the cause of marginalised nations by reforming international institutions and pressing for development with sustainability It is testament to India s commitment to global security through cooperation and collective action This book will be useful to the Departments of Political Science Global Studies International Studies and South Asian studies It will be an indispensable resource for researchers social scientists and general readers interested to understand the theories and key concepts of IR especially from an Indian perspective

Achieving Gender Justice through Education Arpan Tulsyan, 2025-03-05 This book delves into the uncharted territories of how gender dynamics subtly shape educational experiences in Indian schools While traditional educational reforms focus on increasing enrolment and making textbooks more inclusive this book highlights the overlooked yet powerful influence of hidden curriculum the implicit lessons that subtly shape students views on gender caste class and religion Positioned in feminist cultural reproduction perspective and informed by capability approach this book explores education as an object of demand a conduit for diffusion of ideas and a site for gender activism It provides a critical analysis of how schools can be transformed into spaces of empowerment negotiation and resistance for all students Drawing on immersive research that challenges ordinary interactions and processes it expands our understanding of what constitutes curriculum and knowledge Particularly useful for educationists educators policymakers academics curriculum developers
