Question And Form In Literature America Reads:

America Reads: Question and form in literature, 1979      America Reads James Edwin Miller, 1979      Questions and Problems in American Literature Irving Garwood, 1927      Viva Nuestro Caucus Romeo García, Iris Ruiz, 2019-10-13 Viva Nuestro Caucus celebrates the history of the Latinx Caucus of the National Council of Teachers of English and of the College Composition and Communication Conference since its inception in 1968 as the Chicano Teachers of English The Caucus emerged because of a lack of representation and support and today maintains its vision and agenda of advocating for Latino peoples The impetus for Viva Nuestro Caucus began both from a lack of recognition amongst NCTE and CCCC and an acknowledgment that no written history exists of the Caucus Its editors provide a partial history of the agendas activities and achievements of the Caucus from its formation to the present set against the backdrop of changing times It includes interviews with founding and current Caucus members an annotated Caucus archive and a working bibliography of publications by Caucus members      America Reads Robert Cecil Pooley, William Scott Gray, 1952      What America Read Gordon Hutner, 2009 Despite the vigorous study of modern American fiction today s readers are only familiar with a partial shelf of a vast library Gordon Hutner describes the distorted canonized history of the twentieth century American novel as a record of modern classic      American Education, 1974      Understanding Public Debates Jens Martin Gurr, 2024-06-20 By historicizing and contextualizing them through readings of carefully selected literary texts literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing key debates waged in many pluralist societies today whether on different conceptions of liberty identity politics historical commemoration challenges of globalization or responses to climate change Understanding Public Debates presents case studies including Milton s Paradise Lost P B Shelley s 1820 Reform essay Philip Roth s The Human Stain the songwriting of Neil Young and Edward Young s 1720s Sea Odes recent climate fiction as well as non literary conflict narratives Rather than mining texts for arguments for or against certain positions this book is interested in how texts stage these debates by means of multiple perspectives narrative situations or ambiguities By suggesting how educators might use literary texts as conversation starters for more rational debates the volume also contributes to Public Literary Studies Three important fields are here brought together 1 the study of societal debates and conflicts and the ways in which they challenge pluralist societies 2 explorations of the societal functions of literature and of non literary narratives and 3 discussions of the role and functions of literary studies The book ends with ten crisp theses on how literary studies can contribute to understanding and rationalizing such conflictive debates      Reading the Canon Philipp Löffler, 2017-03-02 Reading the Canon explores the relation between the production of literary value and the problem of periodization tracing how literary tastes particular reader communities and sites of literary learning shape the organization of literature in historical perspective Rather than suggesting a political critique of the canon this book shows that the production of literary relevance and its tacit hierarchies of value are necessary consequences of how reading and writing are organized as social practices within different fields of literary activity Reading the Canon offers a comprehensive theoretical account of the conundrums still defining contemporary debates about literary value the book also features a series of historically inflected author studies from classics such as Shakespeare and Thomas Pynchon to less likely figures such as John Neal and Owen Johnson that illustrate how the idea of literary relevance has been appropriated throughout history and across a variety of national and transnational literary institutions The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1871

Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1927 The Eclectic Museum of Foreign Literature, Science and Art John Holmes Agnew,Eliakim Littell,1843 A Course of English Reading,adapted to Every Taste and Capacity James Pycroft,1848 Eclectic Museum of Foreign Literature, Science and Art John Holmes Agnew,1843 The Author, Playwright and Composer ,1917 Good Literature ,1882 Yearbook of the American Reading Forum American Reading Forum. Conference,1985 The Independent ,1889 Published Poems Herman Melville,Robert Charles Ryan,Hershel

Parker,2009-07-02 Although he surprised the world in 1866 with his first published book of poetry Battle Pieces and Aspects of the War Herman Melville had long been steeped in poetry This new offering in the authoritative Northwestern Newberry series The Writings of Herman Melville with a historical note by Hershel Parker is testament to Melville the poet Penultimate in the publication of the series Published Poems follows the release of Melville s verse epic Clarel 1876 and with it contains the entirety of the poems published during Melville s lifetime Battle Pieces as well as John Marr and Other Sailors with Some Sea Pieces 1888 and Timoleon Etc 1891 Battle Pieces and Aspects of the War has long been recognized as a great contribution to the poetry of the Civil War comparable only to Whitman s Drum Taps Its idiosyncrasies many of them grounded in British poetry kept it from immediate popularity but it was not the production of a novice Melville had made himself over into a poet in the late 1850s and had tried to publish a previous collection of poetry now lost in 1860 John Marr and Other Sailors is a retrospective nautical book Its portraits of sailors were influenced by Melville s own experience of aging as well as by his long acquaintance with wasted mariners at the Sailors Snug Harbor on Staten Island where his brother was governor The book modulates into Sea Pieces including the grisly Maldive Shark and To Ned a powerful reflection on how Melville s personal adventures with the Typee islanders in 1842 had accrued rich historical significance over the decades Thematically less unified Timoleon Etc contains poems with many European and exotic settings from ancient to modern times The most famous are After the Pleasure Party and The Age of the Antonines Published in the last year of Melville s life some of the poems were first written many years earlier for example Melville copied The Age of the Antonines out for his brother in law in 1877 describing it as something found in a bundle of old papers One whole section seems to have been almost entirely salvaged from the unpublished 1860 volume of poetry As with the other volumes in the Northwestern Newberry series the aim of this edition of Published Poems is to present a text as close to the author s intention as surviving evidence permits To that end the editorial appendix includes a historical note by Hershel Parker the dean of Melville scholars which gives a compelling in depth account of how one of America s greatest writers grew into the vocation of a poet an essay by G Thomas Tanselle on the printing and publishing history of the works in Published Poems a textual record that identifies the copy texts for the present edition and explains the editorial policy and substantial scholarly notes on individual poems      Silent Film and the Formations of U.S. Literary Culture Sarah Gleeson-White,2024-04-30

Silent Film and the Formations of U S Literary Culture Literature in Motion argues that the emergence of motion pictures constituted a defining moment in U S literary history Author Sarah Gleeson White discovers what happened to literary culture both popular and higher brow when inserted into the spectacular world of motion pictures during the early decades of the twentieth century How did literary culture respond to and how was it altered by the development of motion pictures literature s exemplar and rival in narrative realism and enthrallment Gleeson White draws on extensive archival film and literary materials and unearths a range of collaborative cross media expressive and industrial practices to reveal the manifold ways in which early twentieth century literary culture sought both to harness and temper the reach of motion pictures
