Questioning Krishna Murti Paperback:

J. Krishnamurti Meenakshi Thapan, 2022-06-01 Teacher thinker writer and speaker J Krishnamurti 1895 1986 was an Indian educationist spiritual leader and key figure in world philosophy He raised significant questions about the state of the world about our tendency to remain passive conditioned and in a state of overwhelming confusion about how we relate to the world Through talks and writings spread over many decades and geographical locations he articulated an unconditioned reflective approach which emphasised self inquiry This volume provides an understanding of Krishnamurti's views on the human predicament in a disintegrating world marked by conflict divisions wars and climate change It also examines his educational thought and its enormous potential for change Krishnamurti argued that our minds are so conditioned that we are unable to look listen or learn without our prior knowledge that foregrounds the role of memory and time He highlighted the need to work with young children with a special focus on the school as the centrepiece of his perception for psychological development and educational excellence It is within an educational setting that Krishnamurti hoped that the seeds for individual and social change will be catalysed An introspective look at the life and legacy of an eminent twentieth century thinker this volume will be of great interest to students and researchers of philosophy education religion and spirituality South Asia studies modern history and the social sciences
