the mild lean governess Miss Warry who had taught her everything and she kept a tight hand over the three domestics who formed Sir Hannibal's modest establishment. In spite of her looks and manner Dericka was strong and could have passed for an Elizabeth or Catherine in embryo. All the same she was popular and therefore all the young men of St Ewalds were bound to her chariot wheels. But she favoured none of these as they were too bucolic and tame. Her heart had been given for over six months to a smart young barrister from London who was called Oswald Forde. Sir Hannibal approved for Forde was a rising man and might yet become a K C or a judge but as yet there was no open engagement. Dericka was only twenty and Forde twenty seven so there was time enough for a mutual experiment as to whether they would suit one another before attempting matrimony. The Red Skull Fergus Hume, 1908
