Believing by Faith John Bishop, 2007-04-12 Does our available evidence show that some particular religion is correct It seems unlikely given the great diversity of religious and non religious views of the world But if no religious beliefs can be shown true on the evidence can it be right to make a religious commitment Should people make leaps of faith Or would we all be better off avoiding commitments that outrun our evidence And if leaps of faith can be acceptable how do we tell the difference between good and bad ones between sound religion and dogmatic ideology or fundamentalist fanaticism Believing by Faith offers answers to these questions inspired by a famous attempt to justify faith made by William James in 1896 In doing so it engages critically with much recent discussion in the philosophy of religion and especially the epistemology of religious belief Muslims and the Gospel Roland E. Miller, 2005 The author's five decades of personal experience leads him to conclude that it is possible to be a witness to the Gospel and be a friend to Muslims at the same time The author outlines key factors in the Muslim understanding of the Gospel examines some bridges and defines the art of sharing He concludes by assessing the possibilities of such a mission
