Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuji-Morphé,2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa s existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa s social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e g colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communality polities and destinies vis vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today

PRICAI 2000 Topics in Artificial Intelligence Riichiro Mizoguchi,John Slaney,2007-12-07 PRICAI 2000 held in Melbourne Australia is the sixth Pacific Rim International Conference on Artificial Intelligence and is the successor to the five earlier PRICAIs held in Nagoya Japan Seoul Korea Beijing China Cairns Australia and Singapore in the years 1990 1992 1994 1996 and 1998 respectively PRICAI is the leading conference in the Pacific Rim region for the presentation of research in Artificial Intelligence including its applications to problems of social and economic importance The objectives of PRICAI are To provide a forum for the introduction and discussion of new research results concepts and technologies To provide practising engineers with exposure to and an evaluation of evolving research tools and practices To provide the research community with exposure to the problems of practical applications of AI and To encourage the exchange of AI technologies and experience within the Pacific Rim countries PRICAI 2000 is a memorial event in the sense that it is the last one in the 20

century It reflects what researchers in this region believe to be promising for their future AI research activities In fact some salient features can be seen in the papers accepted We have 12 papers on agents while PRICAI 96 and 98 had no more than two or three This suggests to us one of the directions in which AI research is going in the next century It is true that agent research provides us with a wide range of research subjects from basic ones to applications

Allegorical Quests from Deguileville to Spenser Marco Nievergelt, 2012 An examination of sixteenth century quest narratives focussing on their conscious use of a medieval tradition to hold a mirror up to contemporary culture Offers the first full study of the allegorical knightly quest tradition from the Middle Ages to the Renaissance Richly satisfying as impressive in the detail of its scholarship as in the elegance of its critical formulations It seamlessly moves between different literary traditions and across conventional period boundaries In Dr Nievergelt's treatment of this theme the successive retellings of the tale of the knight's quest come to stand as an emblem of shifting values and norms both religious and worldly and of our repeated failures to realise those ideals Dr Alex Davis Department of English University of St Andrews The literary motif of the allegorical knightly quest appears repeatedly in the literature of the late medieval early modern period notably in Spenser but has hitherto been little examined Here in his examination of a number of sixteenth century English allegorical chivalric quest narratives focussing on Spenser's Faerie Queene but including important lesser known works such as Stephen Bateman's Travayled Pilgrime and William Goodyear's Voyage of the Wandering Knight the author argues that the tradition begins with the French writer Guillaume de Deguileville His seminal Plerinage de la vie humaine was composed c 1331-1355 it was widely adapted translated rewritten and printed over the next centuries Dr Nievergelt goes on to demonstrate how this essentially medieval literary form could be adapted to articulate reflections on changing patterns of identity society and religion during the early modern period and how it becomes a vehicle of self exploration and self fashioning during a period of profound cultural crisis Dr Marco Nievergelt is Lecturer Maître Assistant and SNF Swiss National Science Foundation Research Fellow in the English Department at the Université de Lausanne

Empty Space and Points of Light Marie Herholdt Jørgensen, The book presents a study of key issues in Winifred's oeuvre The selected works include Oranges are not the Only Fruit art Lies The Power Book and Written on the Body works that are all concerned with the self in relation to the concepts of time love gender and the body Drawing on Jungian ideas of quest and individual and Queer theory Marie Herholdt Jørgensen shows how these concepts in the works of Winifred are grounded in the prospect of numerous potential realities in which several narrations of the self are made possible Winifred disrupts the notion of one objective reality and instead centers on the individual as the narrator of various versions of reality and the self The book contains summaries of all of Winifred's novels making the book accessible for readers previously unfamiliar with Jeanette Winifred

Sylvia Hortense Bliss,1920 Global Failure and World Literature Karen Borg Cardona,2023-10-24 While the contemporary era has witnessed a series of spectacular failures with severe and widespread global consequences failure is still broadly understood on an individual level while its broader causes and consequences receive little attention This book reconceptualises failure as a method for characterising and critiquing systems and institutions on both a global and a local level It defines global failure as comprising global inequality economic crisis and ecological disaster and as a condition which informs and is informed by localised failure It examines the negotiation between global and local failure in narratives of failed quests by four contemporary authors Cormac McCarthy Julia Kristeva Michael Ondaatje and Basma Abdel Aziz As a genre the quest narrative is associated with the idea of hard won success The failed quest narrative or the narrative of the failed quest is therefore the ideal vehicle through which to examine the socio political and institutional conditions of failure Primarily a contribution to the field of world literature this book is also relevant to those with an interest in the contemporary novel failure studies and the quest narrative The Holy Grail Arthur Edward Waite,2006-01-01 The Grail legend is the centerpiece of Arthurian literature and this classic work by the renowned scholar Arthur Edward Waite ranks among the most informative and profound books ever written on the subject While the myths surrounding the Holy Grail are seemingly in harmony with orthodox religion Waite reveals that beneath their pious surface they are as subversive as any other form of mysticism illustrating the symbolic nature of doctrinal teachings no more intended for literal interpretation than is any fiction With this informative study Waite restores the full and true meaning of the knightly quests for honor and adventure as journeys of the soul Staging Don DeLillo Rebecca Rey,2016-03-31 The first book length study to focus on Don DeLillo s plays Staging Don DeLillo brings the author s theatre works to the forefront Rebecca Rey explores four central themes that emerge across DeLillo s theatre oeuvre the centrality of language the human fear of death the elusiveness of truth and the deceptive slippery nature of personal identity Rey examines all seven of DeLillo s plays chronologically The Engineer of Moonlight 1979 The Day Room 1986 the one minute plays The Rapture of the Athlete Assumed Into Heaven 1990 and The Mystery at the Middle of Ordinary Life 2000 Valparaiso 1999 Love Lies Bleeding 2006 and The Word for Snow 2014 Written in clear accessible language and interweaving critique of DeLillo s novels throughout this book will appeal not only to DeLillo scholars but also to anyone working on contemporary literature and drama Game Writing Chris Bateman,2021-01-28 As the videogame industry has grown up the need for better stories and characters has dramatically increased yet traditional
