Reality And Rhetoric:

Reality and Rhetoric Péter Tamás Bauer, 1985 Reality and Rhetoric P. T. Bauer, Péter Tamás Bauer, 1984 Reality and Rhetoric is the culmination of P T Bauer s observations and reflections on Third World economies over a period of thirty years He critically examines the central issues of market versus centrally planned economies industrial development official direct and multinational resource transfers to the Third World immigration policy in the Third World and economic methodology In addition he has written a fascinating account of recent papal doctrine on income inequality and redistribution in the Third World The major themes that emerge are the importance of non economic variables particularly people s aptitudes and mores to economic growth the unfortunate results of some current methods of economics the subtle but important effects of the exchange economy on development and the politicization of economic life in the Third World As in Bauer s previous writings this book is marked by elegant prose apt examples a broad economic historical perspective and the masterful use of informal reasoning Word, Self, Reality James Edwin Miller, 1972 Rhetoric and Reality James A. Berlin, 1987-02-26 Berlin here continues his unique history of American college composition begun in his Writing Instruction in Nineteenth Century Colleges 1984 turning now to the twentieth century In discussing the variety of rhetorics that have been used in writing classrooms Berlin introduces a taxonomy made up of three categories objective rhetorics subjective rhetorics and transactional rhetorics which are distinguished by the epistemology on which each is based He makes clear that these categories are not tied to a chronology but instead are to be found in the English department in one form or another during each decade of the century His historical treatment includes an examination of the formation of the English department the founding of the NCTE and its role in writing instruction the training of teachers of writing the effects of progressive education on writing instruction the General Education Movement the appearance of the CCCC the impact of Sputnik and today s literacy crisis Representing Reality Bill Nichols, 1992-02-22 a valuable and important book The Year s Work in Critical and Cultural Theory Representing Reality is the first book to offer a conceptual overview of documentary filmmaking practice It addresses numerous social issues and how they are presented to the viewer by means of style rhetoric and narrative technique The volume poses questions about the relationship of the documentary tradition to power the body authority knowledge and our experience of history This study advances the pioneering work of Nichols s earlier book Ideology and the Image Nichols has written a road block of a book which reconfigures the debate on the documentary at a new level of sophistication and complexity which can only be ignored at the risk of ignoring the whole area of documentary film Sight and Sound the most important book on documentary film yet published Canadian Journal of Film Studies Rhetoric and Reality in Early Christianities Willi Braun, 2006-01-01 One of the most pressing issues for scholars of religion concerns the role of persuasion in early Christianities and other religions in Greco Roman antiquity The essays in Rhetoric and Reality in Early Christianities explore questions about persuasion and its relationship to early Christianities The contributors theorize about persuasion as the effect of verbal performances such as argumentation in accordance with rules of rhetoric or as a result of other types of performance ritual behavioural or imagistic They discuss the relationship between the verbal performance of rhetoric and other performative modes in generating sustaining and transmitting a persuasive form of religiosity The essays in this book cover a wide chronological range from the first century to late antiquity and diverse topical examples contribute to the collection s thematic centre the relations among formalized and technical verbal performances rhetoric texts and other forms of persuasive performances ritual practices the social agendas that early Christians pursued by means of verbal rhetorical performances and the larger social context in which Christians and other religious groups competitively jockeyed to attract the minds and bodies of audiences in the Greco Roman world Reality Bites Dana L. Cloud,2018 Explores truth claims in contemporary U S political rhetoric and the viability of an empirical standard for political truths Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski,2001-07-19 Please update SAGE UK and SAGE INDIA addresses on imprint page Rhetoric Or Reality Charles J. Houy,1980 Conflict Prevention from Rhetoric to Reality Albrecht Schnabel,David Carment,2004-01-01 Together with local actors many governments regional organizations and the UN are embracing preventive action as a viable path towards sustainable peace The contributions to this volume trace conflict prevention efforts in various regional contexts and explain how preventive thinking is being successfully mainstreamed into the activities of regional organizations and the UN Representing Reality Jonathan Potter,1996-08-13 This is an admirable book which can be recommended to students with confidence and is likely also to become an indispensable source of reference for those researching fact construction Discourse conversation analysis and ethnomethodology and semiotics post structuralism and postmodernism Society as Text Richard Harvey Brown,1987 Brown makes elegant use of sociological theory and of insights from language philosophy literary criticism and rhetoric to articulate a new theory of the human sciences using the powerful metaphor of society as text Rhetoric and Reality Indrajit Banerjee,2003 Everywhere in the world the advent of the Internet has been seen as a new catalyst for political freedom and democracy Scholars and pundits have acclaimed the birth of the Internet as a new dawn of global democracy and have hailed the Internet as an insurmountable threat to authoritarian regimes This book constitutes a serious effort to assess the veracity of these claims in the Asian context It analyses the political impact of the Internet in its political environment on two levels the expansion of the public sphere for a more vibrant political environment facilitating political viewpoints and public debate on political issues The book assesses the implications of socio political structures on political discourses specifically initiatives of NGOs and state governments in utilising the Internet to facilitate or hinder political participation The Making Sense of Politics, Media, and Law Gary Watt,2023-04-13 From Trump s make America great again to Johnson s build back better performative politicians use The Making Sense to persuade their public audiences Law makers do it too A courtroom trial is a truth factory in which facts are not found but forged The court of popular opinion is another such factory though its processes are often flawed and its products faulty Where courts of law aim to make civil peace trial by Twitter makes civil strife Even in mainstream media journalists make news for public consumption so that all news is to an extent fake news In a world of making how can we separate craft from craftiness With insights from disciplines including law politics rhetoric media studies psychology sociology marketing and performance studies The Making Sense of Politics Media and Law offers a constructive way to approach controversies from transgender identity to cancel culture This title is also available as open access on Cambridge Core Rhetoric and Reality Mark Yiew Kim Chong,2002

Reaganomics Frank Ackerman,1982 Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L. Brock,Robert Lee Scott,James W. Chesebro,1989 New Labour, New Language? Norman Fairclough,2002-01-04 This is a book about the politics of New Labour that focuses on language Fairclough gets behind the rhetoric to uncover the real meaning He examines a wide range of political speeches and texts from Tony Blair s speech following the death of Diana to the 1997 Labour Party Manifesto and Bill Clinton s book Between Hope and History New Labour New Language blows open the whole debate on the nature of the political discourse of New Labour and the Third Way Written in a clear non technical style and including a glossary New Labour New Language will appeal to anyone interested in language and politics Rhetorical Speculations Scott Sundvall,2019-04-15 The future of writing studies is fundamentally tied to advancing technological development writing cannot be done without a technology and different technologies mediate writing differently In Rhetorical Speculations contributors engage with emerging technologies of composition through speculative modeling as a strategy for anticipatory futural thinking for rhetoric and writing studies Rhetoric and writing studies often engages technological shifts reactively after the production and reception of rhetoric and writing has changed This collection allows rhetoric and writing scholars to explore modes of critical speculation into the transformative effect of emerging technologies particularly as a means to speculate on future shifts in the intellectual pedagogical and institutional frameworks of the field In doing so the project repositions rhetoric and writing scholars as proprietors of our technological future to come rather than as secondary receivers critics and adjusters of the technological present Major and emerging voices in the field offer a range of styles that include pragmatic technical and philosophical approaches to the issue of speculative rhetoric exploring what new media writing studies could be theoretically pedagogically and institutionally as future technologies begin to impinge on the work of writing Rhetorical Speculations is at the cutting edge of the subject of futures thinking and will have broad appeal to scholars of rhetoric literacy futures studies and material and popular culture Contributors Bahareh Brittany Alaei Sarah J Arroyo Kristine L Blair Geoffrey V Carter Sid Dobrin Kristie S Fleckenstein Steve Holmes Kyle Jensen Halcyon Lawrence Alexander Monea Sean Morey Alex Reid Jeff Rice Gregory L Ulmer Anna Worm Rebirth of Rhetoric Richard Andrews,2012-05-16 Rebirth of Rhetoric brings together contributions from several fields to provide a forum in which a unifying theory for language and literature studies can be debated The book does not aim to resurrect classical Renaissance rhetoric but to remake it within a contemporary context The context of texts both spoken and written is one of the main emphases of this collection whether it is the ideology informing the text or the way in which a text is transformed by its audience The book also aims to present a range of practical approaches to the study of texts of all kinds literary televisual film and photography It also argues the case for developments in the Arts and Humanities which will bring together people working in Education Linguistics Composition Literature and Cultural Studies
