The Sea Peter N. Miller, 2013-04-24 The Seabrings together a group of noted contributors to evaluate the different ways in which seas have served as subjects in historiography and asks how this has changed and will change the way history is written The essays in this volume provide exemplary demonstrations of how a sea based history writing that focuses on connectivity networks and individuals describes the horizons and the potential of thalassography the study of the world made by individuals embedded in networks of motion As Peter N Miller contends in his introduction writing about the sea today is a way of partaking in the wider historiographical shift toward microhistory exchange relations networks and above all materiality both literally and figuratively The Sea focuses not on questions of discipline and professionalization as much as on the practice of scholarship the writing and therefore the planning and organizing of histories of the sea The Farmerfield Mission Fiona Vernal,2012-08-29 The Farmerfield Mission explores the history of a residential Christian community in South Africa established for Africans in 1838 by Methodist missionaries destroyed in 1962 by the apartheid government when it was zoned as an exclusive area for white occupation and returned to the descendants of the community under South Africa s land reform program in 1999 Freedom's Prophet Richard S Newman,2008-03-01 Freedom s Prophet is a biography of Richard Allen founder of the first major African American church and leading black activist of America s early nation Gold Winner of the Foreword Magazine Book of the Year Award Biography Category A tireless minister abolitionist and reformer Richard Allen inaugurated some of the most important institutions in African American history influencing nearly every black leader of the nineteenth century from Frederick Douglass to W E B Du Bois Born a slave in colonial Philadelphia Allen secured his freedom during the American Revolution becoming one of the nation s leading black activists before the Civil War Among his achievements Allen helped form the African Methodist Episcopal AME Church co authored the first copyrighted pamphlet by an African American writer published the first African American eulogy of George Washington and convened the first national convention of Black reformers In a time when most Black men and women were categorized as slave property Allen was championed as a Black hero In Freedom s Prophet history professor Richard S Newman describes Allen s continually evolving life and thought setting both in the context of his times From Allen s antislavery struggles and belief in interracial harmony to his reflections on Black democracy and Black emigration Newman traces Allen s impact on American reform and reformers on racial attitudes of the early republic and on the Black struggle for justice in the age of Adams Jefferson Madison and Washington Whether serving as America s first Black bishop challenging slave holding statesmen in a nation devoted to liberty or visiting the President s House the first Black activist to do so Allen s achievements place him in the pantheon of Americas great founding figures The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions Michelle A. Gonzalez,Michelle Gonzalez Maldonado,2024 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Religions offers a comprehensive overview of Caribbean religions The Caribbean is a microcosm of the world s religions but the small geographic space resulted in the encounter of global religions and indigenous religious practices The racial ethnic and cultural diversity of this region makes brief introductions to Caribbean religions incapable of truly addressing its complex and diverse religious landscape The Handbook also elaborates on the diversity of the religious traditions and the national particularity of the region while also considering multiple geographic settings It mentions how often Caribbean religion is studied through the perspective of a

Bates, John M. Chenoweth, James A. Delle, 2018-09-12 While the patterns of habitation and development are similar throughout the Caribbean there was also a great deal of diversity The authors in this volume use innovative techniques and perspectives to reveal the stories of places and times where the usual rules did not always apply Plantation Church Noel Leo Erskine, 2014-01-07 Noel Leo Erskine investigates the history of the Black Church as it developed both in the United States and the Caribbean after the arrival of enslaved Africans Typically when people talk about the Black Church they are referring to African American churches in the U S but in fact the majority of African slaves were brought to the Caribbean It was there Erskine argues that the Black religious experience was born The massive Afro Caribbean population was able to establish a form of Christianity that preserved African Gods and practices but fused them with Christian teachings resulting in religions such as Cuba s Santer a The Black religious experience in the U S was markedly different because African Americans were a political and cultural minority The Plantation Church became a place of solace and resistance that provided its members with a sense of kinship not only to each other but also to their ancestral past Despite their common origins the Caribbean and African American Church are almost never studied together Plantation Church examines the parallel histories of these two strands of the Black Church showing where their historical ties remain strong and where different circumstances have led them down unexpectedly divergent paths The result will be a work that illuminates the histories theologies politics and practices of both branches of the Black Church
