Recent Developments In Alcoholism Vol 17 Alcohol Problems In Adolescents And Young Adults:

Alcohol Research & Health, 2004 Treating and Preventing Adolescent Mental Health Disorders Dwight L. Evans, Daniel Romer, 2017 This volume reviews the latest information about the treatment and prevention of major mental disorders that emerge during adolescence It should be a primary resource for both clinicians and researchers with special attention to gaps in our knowledge What Works for Whom? Peter Fonagy, David Cottrell, Jeannette Phillips, Dickon Bevington, Danya Glaser, Elizabeth Allison, 2014-10-17 The standard reference in the field this acclaimed work synthesizes findings from hundreds of carefully selected studies of mental health treatments for children and adolescents Chapters on frequently encountered clinical problems systematically review the available data identify gaps in what is known and spell out recommendations for evidence based practice The authors draw on extensive clinical experience as well as research expertise Showcasing the most effective psychosocial and pharmacological interventions for young patients they also address challenges in translating research into real world clinical practice New to This Edition Incorporates over a decade of research advances and evolving models of evidence based care New chapter topic child maltreatment Separate chapters on self injurious behavior eating disorders and substance use disorders previously covered in a single chapter on self harming disorders Expanded chapters on depression anxiety and conduct disorder Includes reviews of the burgeoning range of manualized psychosocial treatment packages for children Sequencing and Prediction of Adolescent Soft Drug Initiation: Systematic Review, Quantitative Investigation, and Dual Cross-Validation Rebecca J. Howell, 2010-06-03 In providing a comprehensive investigation of alcohol cigarette and marijuana initiation among adolescents the overarching goals of the research were to build upon extant findings address important gaps found in the literature and contribute to the prevention science knowledge base A four fold purpose founded the study 1 provide a systematic review of the soft drug initiation literature 2 test a modified version of Kandel s 2002 drug sequencing hypothesis 3 determine if predictors of soft drug initiation differ in kind or saliency by biological age and drug type and 4 examine age and drug specific determinants of the timing at which soft drug initiation occurs Supplemental attention also was directed at evaluating the utility of Petraitis et al s 1995 distal proximal mediation hypothesis Through the quantitative component of the research nine hypotheses were tested Cross sectional data were derived from a rural sample of 6th 9th and 12th grade students who completed the 2004 Primary Prevention Awareness Attitude and Use Survey PPAAUS All of the hypotheses obtained some degree of support more support was yielded for the specific risk factor hypothesis than the common factor model and convincing evidence was obtained for Kandel s drug sequencing hypothesis and Petraitis et al s distal proximal mediation hypothesis The findings also supported the bulk of the directional hypotheses and several of the direct and indirect effects propositions put forth in social learning theory the social development model and the theory of planned behavior In contrast the results called into question some of the direct effects articulated in Hirschi s original statement of social control and underscored some possible limits of the social development model In an effort to gauge the validity of the findings a dual cross validation scheme was employed The systematic review cross validation involved comparing the quantitative findings for two major hypotheses to those yielded from 36 primary studies examined in the systematic review Through a further quantitative cross validation the findings for the major and supplemental hypotheses were compared to those derived from a sample of 6th 9th and 12th grade students who completed the 2001 PPAAUS On balance a relatively strong degree of convergence was obtained This confluence served to bolster the reliability and validity of the results Policy and programmatic implications also were indicated

Treating Adolescents Hans Steiner, Rebecca E. Hall, 2015-03-16 A unique guide to adolescent psychopathology using a developmental approach Treating Adolescents is a comprehensive guide to adolescent mental health care synthesizing evidence based practice and practice based perspectives to give providers the best advice available By limiting the discussion to disorders which appear during adolescence this useful manual can delve more deeply into each to present extensive evidence and practice based rationales for approaching a range of psychopathologies This edition has been revised to reflect the changes in the DSM 5 and the ICD 10 with entirely new chapters on ADHD learning and executive function bipolar and mood disorders sleep disorders and suicide and self injury Coverage includes non therapy interventions such as pharmacological and environmental The discussion of schizophrenia and psychotic disorders includes adolescent presentations of Pervasive Developmental Disorders and their relationship to classical schizophrenia In a developmental approach to adolescent psychopathology different treatments are carefully integrated and matched to pathogenic processes in an effort to disrupt causal loops This book provides in depth guidance for providers seeking well rounded treatment plans with detailed explanations and expert insight Understand disruptive behaviors and ADHD more deeply Treat anxiety depression and mood disorders more effectively Handle psychiatric traumas and related psychopathologies Delve into substance abuse self harm eating disorders and more Current scholarship favors developmental approaches to psychopathology and supports an emphasis on integrated treatment packages including environmental biologic and psychological interventions With full integration of practice and research Treating Adolescents is a comprehensive reference for constructing a complete treatment strategy
