Voice in Motion Gina Bloom, 2013-04-19 Voice in Motion explores the human voice as a literary historical and performative motif in early modern English drama and culture where the voice was frequently represented as struggling even failing to work In a compelling and original argument Gina Bloom demonstrates that early modern ideas about the efficacy of spoken communication spring from an understanding of the voice's materiality Voices can be cracked by the bodies that produce them scattered by winds when transmitted as breath through their acoustic environment stopped by clogged ears meant to receive them and displaced by echoic resonances The early modern theater underscored the voice's volatility through the use of pubescent boy actors whose vocal organs were especially vulnerable to malfunction Reading plays by Shakespeare Marston and their contemporaries alongside a wide range of late sixteenth and early seventeenth century texts including anatomy books acoustic science treatises Protestant sermons music manuals and even translations of Ovid Bloom maintains that cultural representations and theatrical enactments of the voice as unruly matter undermined early modern hierarchies of gender The uncontrollable physical voice creates anxiety for men whose masculinity is contingent on their capacity to discipline their voices and the voices of their subordinates By contrast for women the voice is most effective not when it is owned and mastered but when it is relinquished to the environment beyond There the voice's fragile material form assumes its full destabilizing potential and becomes a surprising source of female power Indeed Bloom goes further to query the boundary between the production and reception of vocal sound suggesting provocatively that it is through active listening not just speaking that women on and off the stage reshape their world Bringing together performance theory theater history theories of embodiment and sound studies this book makes a significant contribution to gender studies and feminist theory by challenging traditional conceptions of the links among voice body and self

Routledge Library Editions: Linguistics Various, 2021-12-02 Routledge Library Editions Linguistics brings together as one set mini sets or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles ranging from Applied Linguistics and Language Learning to Experimental Psycholinguistics and Sociolinguistics Today International Perspectives this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from a wide range of authors expert in the field Talking at Cross-purposes Angeliki Tzanne, 2000 Misunderstandings have been examined extensively in studies on cross cultural miscommunication which associate them with participants differing cultural backgrounds and or linguistic knowledge Drawing on a large corpus of misunderstandings from cross and intra cultural encounters this book argues that miscommunication does not relate exclusively to participants background differences or similarities but that its creation and development are tightly interwoven with the dynamic manner in which social encounters unfold Against a backdrop of Pragmatics Conversation Analysis and Goffman s theory of frames and roles the volume discusses a large number of misunderstandings and shows that they are associated with the constant identity and activity shifts as well as with the turn by turn construction of interpretative context in interaction Besides students and researchers of pragmatics conversation analysis and sociolinguistics this book will also appeal to all those interested in the process of making misinterpreting and clarifying meaning in social interaction

Third Article Theology Myk Habets, 2016-09-01 Third Article Theology TAT is the name given to a new movement in constructive theology utilizing a distinctly pneumatological approach to dogmatics Trinitarian in its foundation pneumatological in its impetus and comprehensive in its scope TAT specifies both a method and a theology Thinking through the theological loci of the tradition in relation to the Holy Spirit opens up new vistas and a deeper vision of the task of theology revealing ways of thinking hitherto eclipsed by the tradition Drawing upon the trinitarianism of the Great Tradition theologians from across the theological spectrum bring their voices to bear upon central and defining theological issues of today in order to present a new form of systematic theology a pneumatological dogmatics capable of representing the faith in a contemporary mode For students scholars and clergy the volume unfolds the classic articles of systematic theology in this new register Each doctrinal article is written by a leading theologian in the field with essays from Amos Yong Eugene Rogers Veli Matti Karkkainen Joel Green Marc Cortez Frank Macchia Myk Habets and others

Investigating Media Discourse ANNE O'KEEFFE, 2006-09-27 Investigating Media Discourse explores spoken interactions in the media drawing on contemporary sources from the English speaking world including chat shows radio phone ins and political interviews with leaders such as Tony Blair and George W Bush The main theoretical framework used in this work is influenced by Goffman where each media encounter is viewed as a three way participation framework involving the broadcaster interviewee and audience all of whom shape the interaction The spoken media interactions are analysed from this viewpoint to illustrate how they are managed how pseudo relationships are established and maintained and how others are created O Keefe brings together methodologies of discourse analysis conversation analysis and corpus linguistics allowing the media extracts to be explored from different perspectives whilst providing multiple insights Investigating Media Discourse will appeal to students and researchers of applied linguistics english language and media Anne O Keefe is Lecturer in Applied Linguistics at the Department of English Language and Literature Mary Immaculate College University of Limerick Ireland The Routledge

Arguing Over Texts Martin Camper, 2018 Building on the interpretive stases from the ancient Greco Roman rhetorical tradition Arguing over Texts presents a method for analyzing the types of disagreement people have over textual meaning and the lines of argument they use to resolve those disagreements in various contexts including law politics religion history and literary criticism

Self-preservation in Simultaneous Interpreting Claudia Monacelli, 2009-01-01 The image of the tightrope walker illustrates the interpreter's balancing act Compelled to move forward at a pace set by someone else interpreters compensate for pressures and surges that might push them into the void The author starts from the observation that conference interpreters tend to see survival as being their primary objective It is interpreters awareness of the essentially face threatening nature of the profession that naturally induces them to seek what the author calls dynamic equilibrium a constantly evolving state in which problems are resolved in the interests of maintaining the integrity of the system as a whole By taking as a starting point the more visible interventions interpreters make comments on speed of delivery on exchanges between the chair and the floor the author is able to explore the interpreter's instinct for self preservation in an inherently unstable environment This volume is an insightful and refreshing account of interpreters behavior from the other side of the glass fronted booth

Contexts of Accommodation Howard

Giles, Justine Coupland, Nikolas Coupland, 1991-09-27 In Contexts of Accommodation accommodation theory is presented as a basis for sociolinguistic explanation and it is the applied perspective that predominates this edited collection The book seeks to demonstrate how the core concepts and relationships invoked by accommodation theory are available for addressing altogether pragmatic concerns Languages for Special Purposes John Humbley, Gerhard Budin, Christer

Laurén, 2018-10-22 This handbook gives an overview of language for special purposes LSP in scientific professional and other contexts with particular focus on teaching and training It provides insights into research paradigms theories and methods while also highlighting the practical use of LSPs in concrete discourse situations The volume is transdisciplinary oriented with a firm basis in the language sciences including terminology knowledge transfer multilingual and cross cultural exchange

Sociolinguistics Today (RLE Linguistics C: Applied Linguistics) Kingsley Bolton, Helen Kwok, 2014-01-10 This collection of essays developed out of a conference held in Hong Kong in 1988 The aim was to provide a forum for an exchange of views between academics working within the field of sociolinguistics in particular between those working in the West and those working in the East Sociolinguistics Today has taken this aim a step further to produce an overview of contemporary research into sociolinguistics worldwide The book contains articles by acknowledged leaders in the study of language and society and the presence of sociolinguists working in Asia provides a new and exciting challenge to the hitherto western dominated field The comprehensive study of Asian sociolinguistics is unique and engages with the non Asian contributions to great effect The range of contributors reinforces the international emphasis of the book Knowing Audiences Martin
