MD,2011-08-01 I have been most gratified with the positive response to my first book Reflections of a Country Doctor Many readers encouraged me to write another book that told the rest of my story This book contains some of my experiences during my premedical and medical training years and more of my experiences during my twenty six years as an old time family physician in rural America Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from experiencing the joys of pediatrics to the frustrations of medical errors from performing surgery to becoming involved in one's community and from making routine home visits to providing life or death emergency care. Afterward he was a member of the faculty of the Montana Family Medicine Residency, a program that he helped to develop. Prescription Jimmie L. Ashcraft M. D., 2020-02. An African proverb says, "It takes an entire village to raise a child." The same can be said of physicians. No one traverses the journey through medical training and private practice by themselves because the stars are aligned just right. The journey demands a considerable supportive effort from a village of many or perhaps many villages. This book contains my reflections upon my 26 years as an old-time generalist family physician in rural America. It is merely a collection of stories that depict some of my experiences over the years. The stories mirror those of many of my generalist colleagues who have experienced the trenches of rural primary care. In fact, on occasion I introduced myself as nothing more than a full-time trenchologist. My stories span the breadth and depth of the discipline of rural family medicine. Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life and from performing surgery to becoming involved in one's community. Some are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad.
