order that we might be clear about how patristic literature affected this process we turn next to discover what the Reformers knew about the church fathers We show evidence of the impressive patristic knowledge of such men as Zwingli Brucer Hedio Oecolampadius and Calvin An extensive bibliography of patristic editions known and used by the Reformers concludes the second part of the book Finally we analyze each element of Reformed worship to show its development and to indicate its scriptural and particularly its patristic roots The Prayer of Confession the Prayer of Intercession the Communion Invocation and the Benediction are studied to show their liturgical purpose How the Reformers understood their use of the lectionary the sermon psalmody and hymnody is presented in the light of their understanding of the practice of the ancient church
