Advanced Techniques for Film Scoring Earle Hagen, 1990 Accompanying audio CD has music segments from film soundtracks Scoring for Films Earle Hagen, 1971 Scoring the Score Ian Sapiro, 2016-11-10 Scoring the Score is the first scholarly examination of the orchestrator's role in the contemporary film industry Orchestrators are crucial to the production of a film's score yet they have not received significant consideration in film music research This book sheds light on this often overlooked yet vital profession It considers the key processes of orchestrating and arranging and how they relate musical and filmic training the wide ranging responsibilities of the orchestrator on a film scoring project issues related to working practices the impact of technology and the differences between the UK and US production processes as they affect orchestrators Drawing on interviews with American and British orchestrators and composers Scoring the Score aims to expose this often hidden profession through a rigorous examination of the creative process and working practices and analysis of the skills training and background common to orchestrators It will appeal to scholars students and practitioners of film music Scoring for Films Earle Hagen, 1971 Music and the Silent Film Martin Miller Marks, 1997-02-13 In this book a leading authority on film music examines scores of the silent film era The first of three projected volumes investigating music written for films this thoughtful and pathbreaking study demonstrates the richness of silent film music as it details the way in which scores were often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924 He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915 As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant garde composer Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant important and oft neglected facet of twentieth century music Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory film history modern music and modern aesthetics Checklist of Writings on American Music, 1640-1992 Guy A. Film Rhythm After Sound Lea Jacobs, 2015 The seemingly effortless integration of sound movement and editing in films of the late 1930s stands in vivid contrast to the awkwardness of the first talkies Film Rhythm after Sound analyzes this evolution via close examination of important prototypes of early sound filmmaking as well as contemporary discussions of rhythm tempo and pacing Jacobs looks at the rhythmic dimensions of performance and sound in a diverse set of case studies the Eisenstein Prokofiev collaboration Ivan the Terrible Disney's Silly Symphonies and early Mickey Mouse cartoons musicals by Lubitsch and Mamoulian and the impeccably timed dialogue in Hawks's films Jacobs argues that the new range of sound technologies made possible a much tighter synchronization of music speech and movement than had been the norm with the live accompaniment of silent films Filmmakers in the early years of the transition to sound experimented with different technical means of achieving synchronization and employed a variety of formal strategies for creating rhythmically unified scenes and sequences Music often served as a blueprint for rhythm and pacing as was the case in Mickey Mousing the close integration of music and movement in animation However by the mid 1930s filmmakers had also gained enough control over dialogue recording and editing to utilize dialogue to pace scenes independently of the music track Jacobs's highly original study of early sound film practices provides significant new contributions to the fields of film music and sound studies
