Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly, 2005-01-01 In Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly examines four accomplished Francophone North African writers Moulaoud Feroan Assia Djébar Albert Memmi and Abdelkebir Khatibi to illuminate the complex relationship of a writer's work to cultural and national histories The legacies of colonialism and the difficulties of nationalism run throughout all four writers' works yet in their striking individuality the four demonstrate the ways in which such heritages are refracted through a writer's personal history This book will be of interest to students of Francophone literature colonialism and African history and culture

Postcolonial Thought in the French Speaking World Charles Forsdick, David Murphy, 2022-04-01 In the late 1990s Postcolonial Studies risked imploding as a credible area of academic enquiry Repeated anthologization and an overemphasis on the English language literatures led to sustained critiques of the field and to an active search for alternative approaches to the globalized and transnational formations of the post colonial world In the early twenty first century however postcolonial began to reveal a new openness to its comparative dimensions French language contributors to postcolonial debate such as Edouard Glissant and Abdelkebir Khatibi have recently risen to greater prominence in the English speaking world and there have also appeared an increasing number of important critical and theoretical texts on postcolonial issues written by scholars working principally on French language material It is to such a context that this book responds Acknowledging these shifts this volume provides an essential tool for students and scholars outside French departments seeking a way into the study of Francophone colonial postcolonial debates At the same time it supplies scholars in French with a comprehensive overview of essential ideas and key intellectuals in this area

The Albert Memmi Reader Albert Memmi, 2021-02 Born in 1920 on the edge of Tunis's Jewish quarter the French Jewish Tunisian sociologist philosopher and novelist Albert Memmi has been a central figure in colonial and postcolonial studies Often associated with the anticolonial struggles of the 1950s and 1960s Memmi's career has spanned fifty years more than twenty book length publications and hundreds of articles that are distilled in this collection The Albert Memmi Reader presents Memmi's insights on the legacies of the colonial era critical theories of race and his distinctive story Memmi's novels and essays feature not only decolonial struggles but also commentary on race the psychology of dependence and what it means to be Jewish This reader includes selections from his classic works such as The Pillar of Salt and The Colonizer and the Colonized as well as previously untranslated pieces that punctuate Memmi's literary life and career and illuminate the full arc of the life of one of the great thinkers of the twentieth century Selections from his later works speak directly to contemporary issues in European African and Middle Eastern studies such as racism immigration and European identity and the struggles of postcolonial states including Israel Palestine

The Desert Albert Memmi, 2015-10-08 Hailed as a masterpiece when it was first published in France in 1977 The Desert tells the story of al Mammi a young exiled prince of a now destroyed Jewish kingdom in southern Morocco in the late fourteenth century Fighting battles in the service of kings and narrowly escaping imprisonment the prince travels the Islamic world absorbing lessons often painfully on how to govern himself as well as a country At that same time al Mammi engages upon a spiritual journey to obtain inner wisdom rather than material riches Memmi chronicles the prince's fortunes as they rise and fall drawing upon the traditions of Maghrebian storytelling and Arabian tales to offer a highly imaginative and allegorical novel that provocatively blends history with fiction

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Holocaust Literature: Lerner to Zychlinsky, index S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

Against Autobiography Lia Nicole Brozgal,2018-08-01 The work of Tunisian Jewish intellectual Albert Memmi like that of many francophone Maghrebian writers is often read as thinly veiled autobiography Questioning the prevailing body of criticism which continues this interpretation of most fiction produced by francophone North African writers Lia Nicole Brozgal shows how such interpretations of Memmi s texts obscure their not inconsiderable theoretical possibilities Calling attention to the ambiguous status of autobiographical discursive and textual elements in Memmi s work Brozgal shifts the focus from the author to theoretical questions Against Autobiography places Memmi s writing and thought in dialogue with several major critical shifts in the late twentieth century literary and cultural landscape These shifts include the crisis of the authorial subject the interrogation of the form of the novel the resistance to the hegemony of vision and the critique of colonialism Showing how Memmi s novels and essays produce theories that resonate both within and beyond their original contexts Brozgal argues for allowing works of francophone Maghrebi literature to be read as complex literary objects that is not simply as ethnographic curios but as generating elements of literary theory on their own terms Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World Hafid Gafaiti,2009-07-01 The dissolution of the French Empire and the ensuing rush of immigration have led to the formation of diasporas and immigrant cultures that have transformed French society and the immigrants themselves Transnational Spaces and Identities in the Francophone World examines the impact of this postcolonial immigration on identity in France and in the Francophone world which has encompassed parts of Africa the Middle East Southeast Asia and the Americas Immigrants bear cultural traditions within themselves transform host communities and are in turn transformed These migrations necessarily complicate ideals of national literature culture and history forcing a reexamination and a rearticulation of these ideals Exploring a variety of texts informed by these transnational conceptions of identity and space the contributors to this volume reveal the vitality of Francophone studies within a broad range of disciplines periods and settings They remind us that the idea and reality of Francophonie is not a late twentieth century phenomenon but something that grows out of long term interactions between colonizer and colonized and between peoples of different nationalities ethnicities and religions Truly interdisciplinary this collection engages conceptions of identity with respect to their physical geographic ethnic and imagined realities Francophone Sephardic Fiction Judith Roumani, 2022-04-13 Francophone Sephardic Fiction Writing Migration Diaspora and Modernity approaches modern Sephardic literature in a comparative way to draw out similarities and differences among selected francophone novelists from various countries with a focus on North Africa The definition of Sepharad here is broader than just Spain it embraces Jews whose ancestors had lived in North Africa for centuries even before the arrival of Islam and who still today trace their allegiance to ways of being Jewish that go back to Babylon as do those whose ancestors spent a few hundred years in Iberia The author traces the strong influence of oral storytelling on modern novelists of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries and explores the idea of the portable homeland as exile and migration engulfed the long rooted Sephardic communities The author also examines diaspora concepts how modernity and post modernity threatened traditional ways of life and how humor and an active return into history for the novel have done more than mere nostalgia could to enliven the portable homeland of modern francophone Sephardic fiction Abdelkébir Khatibi Jane Hiddleston, Khalid Lyamlahy, 2020 Abdelk bir Khatibi is one of the most important voices to emerge from North Africa in postcolonial studies This book is the first to offer a thoroughgoing analysis in English of all aspects of his multifaceted thought as it ranges from Moroccan politics to Arabic calligraphy and from decolonisation to interculturality Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley, Renée Brenda Larrier, Joseph McLaren, 1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe Sephardism Yael Halevi-Wise, 2012-04-11 In this book Sephardism is defined not as an expression of Sephardic identity but as a politicized literary metaphor Since the nineteenth century this metaphor has occurred with extraordinary frequency in works by authors from a variety of ethnicities religions and nationalities in Europe the Americas North Africa Israel and even India Sephardism asks why Gentile and Jewish writers and cultural figures have chosen to draw upon the medieval Sephardic experience to express their concerns about dissidents and minorities in modern nations To what extent does their use of Sephardism overlap with other politicized discourses such as orientalism hispanism and medievalism which also emerged from a clash between authoritarian progressive and romantic ideologies This book brings a new approach to Sephardic Studies by situating it at a crossroads between Jewish Studies and Hispanic Studies in ways that enhance our appreciation of how historical fiction and political history have shaped and were shaped by historical attitudes toward Jews and their representation Racism Albert Memmi, 2000 Albert Memmi s controversial statements about racism and his call to each of us to devote ourselves to its eradication futile though this effort will be are straightforward and lucid yet also powerful and universal In this remarkable meditation on a subject at the troubled center of contemporary life Memmi investigates racism as social pathology a cultural disease that prevails because it allows one segment of society to empower itself at the expense of another By turns historical sociological and autobiographical Racism moves beyond individual prejudice to engage the broader questions of collective behavior and social responsibility Book jacket
