Inside Jamaican Schools Hyacinth L. Evans, 2001 Students and teachers of education in the Caribbean have long relied on ethnographic research from North America to enrich their understanding of life in schools and classrooms Based on actual experiences from the perspectives of both students and teachers this collection of ethnographic research articles provides the first up close view of Jamaican schools and classrooms

Hyacinth Evans and her research team used careful well executed interviews and participant observation methods The result is an insightful view of the ways society s tensions are played out in educational settings the ways personalities are shaped and identities formed in face to face interactions and the ways circumstances and experiences in the Jamaican setting affect teaching and learning The articles examine Student teacher interaction Teacher authority how it is maintained nurtured or eroded The social construction of student interest and attention versus disruptiveness and apathy Consequences of streaming children in perceived ability groups Standard Jamaican English SJE methods and their effectiveness in teaching Creole speaking students Resources in Education ,1999-04 A Better Chance to Learn, Bilingual Bicultural Education United States Commission on Civil Rights,1975

Reconceptualizing Literacy in the New Age of Multiculturalism and Pluralism Patricia Ruggiano Schmidt,Peter B. Mosenthal,2001-07-01 This book offers a array of essays with challenging ideas and provoking new analyses of power asymmetries multiple epistemologies and vital con cerns for the education of a different America the America of new immi grants people of color with other cultures languages and values The new American that many want to ignore and is becoming the only America This book also forces us to reflect on the educational challenges we must face especially in teacher education and the preparation of intellectual leaders None of the major agenda items associated with a new era of social justice can be either comprehended or accomplished without a profound understanding of multicultural literacy and of its relationship to ethnic racial cultural and linguistic diversity While in previous decades we used frequently a rhetoric of multiculturalism at a safe distance today we are living multiculturalism and practicing ethnic cultural and racial diversity in our daily lives as we seek a marriage partner a business associate a friend a church Most of all we must live multiculturalism as we go school and see children s faces There is no way to escape the reality of ethnic racial and linguistic diversity as it comes entangled with many other cul tural and class differences between and within each group we encounter Suddenly an abrupt awakening for many mainstream educators what was peculiar of some areas in the Southwest has become common scenario in most metropolis and large cities The present volume brings us face to face with issues and challenges we can no longer sweep under the rug This outstanding volume lays down a solid general conceptual foundation that permits us to link our theoretical past with the post modern era It also provides a clear context for the dis cussion of contrasting notions of monocultural literacy and the relation ship of literacy and power The volume goes on to deal with the relationship of literacy and culture actually to specific cultures especially African American At this point the discourse turns to strategies for incor porating minority perspectives into the literacy curriculum and including the home cultures of disenfranchised peoples The last section of the book offers help on the practical issues of teacher education for student popula tions often ignored and linkages between schools and homes in order to empower the disenfranchised and isolated Handbook of Research on Education and Technology in a Changing Society Wang, Victor C. Ponterotto, Ena Vazquez-Nutall, 1998-02-12 Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a state of the art book integrating the literature and work on multicultural counseling competencies It draws out implications for individual professional and institutional development by identifying the characteristics related to culturally competent mental health care As such it has relevance for practitioners who will increasingly encounter client populations who differ from them in terms of race culture and ethnicity it suggests how the mental health profession needs to alter its practices to fit the needs of the culturally different in our society and it advocates changes in mental health policy programs and organization In a very systematic manner the text provides a working definition of multiculturalism from which counselors therapists and social workers can ground their awareness knowledge and skills It presents a new concept called ethnocentric monoculturalism and traces how it has inundated our society and the mental health professions Written by leaders in the field of multicultural counseling Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a landmark volume in clinical and counseling psychology educational psychology gender studies nursing social work psychology health services interpersonal violence and ethnic studies

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing

Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria
