Historical Dictionary of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2008-12-04 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The Historical Dictionary of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards

Black Lenses, Black Voices Mark A. Reid, 2005-03-25 Black Lenses Black Voices is a provocative look at films directed and written and sometimes produced by African Americans as well as black oriented films whose directors or screenwriters are not black Mark Reid shows how certain films dramatize the contemporary African American community as a politically and economically diverse group vastly different from film representations of the 1960s Taking us through the development of African American independent filmmaking before and after World War II he then illustrates the unique nature of African American family action horror female centered and independent films such as Eve s Bayou Jungle Fever Shaft Souls of Sin Bones Waiting to Exhale Monster s Ball Sankofa and many more

Pleading the Blood Christopher Sieving, 2022-02-01 The definitive look at one of the most important Black art films and original filmmakers of the 1970s Bill Gunn s Ganja Hess 1973 has across the decades attained a sizable cult following among African American cinema devotees art house aficionados and horror fans thanks to its formal complexity and rich allegory Pleading the Blood is the first full length study of this cult classic Ganja Hess was withdrawn almost immediately after its New York premiere by its distributor because Gunn s poetic re fashioning of the vampire genre allegedly failed to satisfy the firm s desire for a by the numbers blaxploitation horror flick for quick sell off in the urban market Its current status as one of the classic works of African American cinema has recently been confirmed by the Blu ray release of its restored version by its continued success in screenings at repertory houses museums and universities and by an official remake Da Sweet Blood of Jesus 2014 directed by Spike Lee one of the original picture s longtime champions Pleading the Blood draws on Gunn s archived papers screenplay drafts and storyboards as well as interviews with the living

major creative participants to offer a comprehensive absorbing account of the influential movie and its highly original filmmaker

Spirituality as Ideology in Black Women's Film and Literature Judylyn S. Ryan, 2005 Given the ways in which spirituality functions in the work of such Black women writers and filmmakers as Toni Morrison Ntozake Shange Maya Angelou Julie Dash and Euzhan Palcy Judylyn Ryan proposes in this challenging new study that what these women embrace in their narrative construction and characterization is the role and responsibility of the priestess bearing and distributing life force to sustain the community of people who read and view their work Central to these women's vision of transformation is what Ryan calls a paradigm of growth and an ethos of interconnectedness which provide interpretive models for examining and teaching a broad range of artistic cultural and social texts The focus on theology provides a new way of viewing the connections among New World African diaspora religious traditions challenging the widespread and reductive assumption that Afro Christianity shares no philosophical commonalities with Santeria Candomble Voodoo and other traditions that are not christological In addition to exploring spirituality as epistemology the book also provides an inter textual reading of Black women's literary and film texts that examines the ways in which these works expose mediate and interpret the cultural social and historical conditions surrounding their production While most discussions of Black women's engagement with and contribution to the discursive space of the culture assume an oppositional or reactive stance Ryan argues that the disposition reflected in the texts she examines tends to be relational and proactive conferring an autonomy that the gravitational pull between opposites lacks This inter textual reading constitutes a multimedia auteur criticism of a collective artistic vision

Cuba's Racial Crucible Karen Y. Morrison, 2015-05-26 This prize winning study examines the historical interplay of racial identity nationality and family formation in Cuba from the 18th century to today Since the 19th century there have been two opposing perspectives on Cuban racial identity one that frames Cubans as white and one that sees them as racially mixed based on acceptance of African descent For the past two centuries these competing views of have remained in continuous tension while Cuban women and men make their own racially oriented decisions about choosing partners and family formation Cuba's Racial Crucible explores the historical dynamics of Cuban race relations by highlighting the role race has played in reproductive practices and genealogical memories associated with family formation Karen Y Morrison reads archival oral history and literary sources to demonstrate the ideological centrality and inseparability of race nation and family in definitions of Cuban identity Morrison also analyzes the conditions that supported the social advance and decline of notions of white racial superiority nationalist projections of racial hybridity and pride in African descent Winner NECLAS Marissa Navarro Best Book Prize

Reel Black Talk Linda Allen, Spencer Moon, 1997-09-23 As evidenced in interviews included in this volume many African American filmmakers consider themselves artists first their ethnicity being only part of what influences their work This is the first book by an African American on contemporary African American filmmakers Here directors and producers speak for themselves posing challenges to current thinking in the field Special emphasis is given to the filmmakers productions and their experiences Essays on historic figures reveal the rich history of the African American contribution to cinema From Oscar Micheaux and Spencer Williams to Neema Barnett and the team of George Jackson and Doug McHenry this revealing reference work will enlighten scholars students and film buffs As early as 1899 African Americans were involved in the filmmaking industry Oscar Micheaux took directing writing and producing to a higher level with the release of his first film in 1918 by 1948 he had made more than forty films Currently by international world cinema standards the African American tradition rivals cinema from anywhere in the world but these filmmakers face a quandary whether to make films through the Hollywood system or follow an independent vision This book presents a cross section of filmmakers from each camp and also focuses on those who work in both arenas Feminist Auteurs Geetha

Ramanathan,2006 Feminist Auteurs examines a rich and diverse body of work that has received insufficient attention both in film studies and in feminist theory on film Looking at individual films within the context of feminist film as a genre Ramanathan examines film from diverse cultural traditions while paying close attention to what might be regarded as feminist in different cultural contexts The films chosen expand our ideas of feminism covering as they do film from Africa Latin America Europe Asia and the US Full length interpretations of twenty four films both older and contemporary including Vagabond India Song Bhaji on the Beach Chocolat and Daughters of the Dust lay out a complete and powerful framework for reading women s film Freedom from Liberation Gerard Aching,2015-08-07 Delves into the life and work of Juan Francisco Manzano the enslaved Cuban poet and author of Spanish America s only known slave narrative Valuable Choice By exploring the complexities of enslavement in the autobiography of Cuban slave poet Juan Francisco Manzano 1797 1854 Gerard Aching complicates the universally recognized assumption that a slave s foremost desire is to be freed from bondage As the only slave narrative in Spanish that has surfaced to date Manzano s autobiography details the daily grind of the vast majority of slaves who sought relief from the burden of living under slavery Aching combines historical narrative and literary criticism to take the reader beyond Manzano s text to examine the motivations behind anticolonial and antislavery activism in pre revolution Cuba when Cuba s Creole bourgeoisie sought their own form of freedom from the colonial arm of Spain

American Fatherhood Jürgen Martschukat,2019-12-31 Explores the surprising diversity of fathers and fatherhood throughout American history and society The nuclear family has been endlessly praised as the bedrock of American society even though there has rarely been a time in history when a majority of Americans lived in such families This book deconstructs the myth of the nuclear family by presenting the rich diversity of family lives in American history from the American Revolution to the twenty first century To tell this story Jürgen Martschukat focuses on fathers and their relations to families and American society Using biographical close ups of twelve different characters each embedded in historical context American Fatherhood provides a much more realistic picture of how fatherhood has been performed within different kinds of families Each protagonist covers a crucial period or event in American history presents a different family constellation and makes a different argument with regard to how American society is governed through the family      Black Women Film and Video Artists Jacqueline Bobo,2013-09-13 Black women film and video makers have been producing shorts documentaries and films since the early part of this century Unfortunately not only has their work been overlooked by distributors but critical reviews have been few and far between Conceived to redress that omission Black Women Film and Video Artists is the first comprehensive history and analysis of this genre Gathered here are noted scholars and critics as well as the film video makers themselves who offer insight into the work of underexplored artists The discussions range from pioneering to contemporary film makers and include artists such as Madeline Anderson Monica Freeman Jacqueline Shearer Kathleen Collins Julie Dash Camille Billops Zeinabu irene Davis and Michelle Parkerson among others Contributors include Jacqueline Bobo Carmen Coustaut Gloria J Gibson C A Griffith Monique Guillory Carol Munday Lawrence O Funmilayo Makarah Ntongela Maselila Jacqueline Shearer P Jane Splawn      American Films of the 70s Peter Lev,2010-01-01 While the anti establishment rebels of 1969 s Easy Rider were morphing into the nostalgic yuppies of 1983 s The Big Chill Seventies movies brought us everything from killer sharks blaxploitation and disco musicals to a loving look at General George S Patton Indeed as Peter Lev persuasively argues in this book the films of the 1970s constitute a kind of conversation about what American society is and should be open diverse and egalitarian or stubbornly resistant to change Examining forty films thematically Lev explores the conflicting visions presented in films with the following kinds of subject matter Hippies Easy Rider Alice s Restaurant Cops The French Connection Dirty Harry Disasters and conspiracies Jaws Chinatown End of the Sixties Nashville The Big Chill Art Sex and Hollywood Last Tango in Paris Teens American Graffiti Animal House War Patton Apocalypse Now African Americans Shaft Superfly Feminisms An Unmarried Woman The China Syndrome Future visions Star Wars Blade Runner As accessible to ordinary moviegoers as to film scholars Lev s book is an essential companion to these familiar well loved movies      Charles Burnett James Naremore,2017-10-10 In the first book devoted to Charles Burnett a crucial figure in the history of American cinema often regarded as the most influential member of the L A Rebellion group of African American filmmakers James Naremore provides a close critical study of all Burnett s major pictures for movies and television including Killer of Sheep To Sleep with Anger The Glass Shield Nightjohn The Wedding Nat Turner A Troublesome Property and Warming by the Devil s Fire Having accessed new information and rarely seen material Naremore shows that Burnett s career has developed against the odds and that his artistry social criticism humor and commitment to what he calls symbolic knowledge have given his work enduring value for American culture      Frame by Frame II Phyllis Rauch Klotman,Gloria J.
