Performance in the Texts of Mallarmé Mary Lewis Shaw,1993-03-01 Performance in the Texts of Mallarmé offers a new theory of performance in the poetic and critical texts of Stéphane Mallarmé a theory challenging the prevailing interpretation of his work as epitomizing literary purism and art for art's sake Following an analytical presentation of the concepts of ritual and performance generally applied Mary Shaw shows that Mallarmé perceived music dance and theater as ideal languages of the body and therefore as ideal forms of ritual through which to supplement and celebrate poetic texts She focuses on previously unexplored references to supplementary extratextual performances in four of Mallarmé's major poetic texts Herodiade, L'Après-midi d'un faune, Igitur and Un coup de dés revealing the consistent formal expression of his original conception of literature's relationship to the performing arts. Shaw then discusses Mallarmé's monumental project Le Livre as a metaphysical book designed to be performed in a series of ritual celebrations. She analyzes and describes the intrinsic structure and contents of this unfinished work as the fullest realization of the text-performance relationship elaborated throughout Mallarmé's corpus. Shaw offers Le Livre as a prototype of avant-garde performance drawing important parallels between Mallarmé's literary experimentation and crucial developments in twentieth-century arts.
