International Journal of Religious Education ,1939 Decision Making and the Bible H. Edward Everding,Dana W. Wilbanks,1975 The Presbyterian Pendulum Mark J. Englund-Krieger,2010-02-01 The Presbyterian Pendulum is a study in mainline Protestant social ethics with a focus on the Presbyterian Church USA This book is written for the church with the hope that it will provide theological foundation and spiritual encouragement for our efforts to find unity despite the diversity of convictions and perspectives in our midst This is a historical study of the significant social and political issues to which the church responded throughout the twentieth century With a foundation in solid historical research this book offers the compelling thesis that the Presbyterian Church is at its best when the wild diversity of worldviews theological perspectives and convictions are encouraged Even more the book offers the spiritually rich thesis that it is in this wild diversity not despite of it that the providence of God is seen and known What is unique and compelling about this study is the guiding metaphor of the pendulum swinging The vast difference of opinion in the church around social issues has historically always been true is necessary today and itself points to a deeper truth about God s sustaining providence The church must discern and hold onto that deeper truth We must let the pendulum swing It is my hope that this book will be an encouragement for the church even as we continue to be mired in deep conflict To Do Justice Rebecca Todd Peters,Elizabeth L. Hinson-Hasty,2008-01-01 Encouraging Christians to call for public policies that benefit those most vulnerable in our nation To Do Justice offers tools for studying complex domestic social problems such as Social Security immigration the environment and public education and serves as a guidebook to becoming involved in social action Rooted in Christian tradition each essay analyzes a contemporary problem from social biblical and theological perspectives before providing directions for public policy These engaged ethicists from across the mainline denominations provide concrete examples of how progressive minded Christians can work for justice in response to these moral dilemmas With discussion questions in each chapter this book is an excellent resource for classrooms both in colleges and in churches Christian Social Action ,2004 and activist communities Toward an Evangelical Public Policy Ronald J. Sider, Diane Knippers, 2005-02 Deepens thinking about biblical and other conceptual foundations for political engagement in order to unify and give consistency to evangelicals involvement in politics The Living Church, 1944 Engaging Life's Deepest Questions: Teacher's Contexts Roberta R. King, William A. Dyrness, 2019-11-05 In search of holistic Christian witness we must cultivate new approaches for integrating the arts into mission praxis Written by missiologists art critics ethnodoxologists and theologians from around the world these essays present historical and contemporary case studies while calling Christians to understand the power of art for expressing cultural and religious identity opening spaces for transformative encounters and resisting injustice The Forgotten Luther II Paul A. Wee, Ryan P. Cumming, 2019-04-02 In this critical time in history this volume argues that what is urgently needed is a cogent clear biblically based and theologically grounded rationale for the manner in which the church speaks and acts in the political arena Lured at times into other worldly quietism because of the pressure of historical events or distorted through a rigid understanding of the two kingdoms the church of the Reformation has at times been silent in addressing the political factors that create and contribute to hunger injustice and war This book looks carefully at the public witness of Martin Luther and its meaning for preaching teaching and carrying out public ministry today Luther's conviction was that government is responsible to God for containing evil and maintaining peace and good order and for ensuring that no person is hungry or in want The book asks critical questions When should the church support the state's agenda When should it resist What are the options for critical but constructive cooperation This helpful volume includes essays from leading Lutheran theologians a summary description of what this means for local ministry and a study guide to encourage conversation and action Southern Methodist Women and Social Justice Janet Allured, M. Kathryn

Armistead, 2025-04-08 This book tells the stories of nine southern Methodist women who inspired by their faith advocated for progressive reform by fighting for racial equality challenging white male supremacy and addressing class oppression The God Dilemma V.C. Thomas, 2009-08-25 Today's modern technology and scientific knowledge contradicts all religious dogma created in ancient times by ignorant and superstitious people who had just learned to write Modern science can test the strength of one's faith and it can make him a skeptic causing him to discard the religious beliefs of his family for generations past Deep religious experiences or self induced delusions can be explained by physical psychological biological and medical sciences today Evil or Sin is the result of social and mental conditions and can be corrected with education and medication today and without the help of an imaginary God To quote Mark Twain Faith is to believe in what you know for sure is not true The GOD Dilemma is an unscientific investigation to justify believing in religion today and in particular the Christian faith It argues that scientific and logical discussions about religion and the existence of God are futile however we cannot stop thinking about it Humans are maybe born with a faith in Gods existence and with a conscience that tells them which is morally and ethically right and which is not Author Thomas used to believe in religion God and Christianity through his teenage years but even if he learned to ignore it during his 50 adult years he never consciously discarded his Christian faith He now shares his investigations and attempts to believe in Jesus Christ once again despite todays knowledge of the universe and evolution and by ignoring the sanctimonious behavior of fundamentalist US Christians In the international scene Thomas believes that the US wars since WWII cannot be justified by the life and the teachings of Jesus Christ There is an underlying moral claim by fundamentalist Christian Americans that its actions are justified by Jesus and Christianity The new phenomenon called Christian Zionism which requires the removal of Palestinians from their homeland to create and expand Israel to enable the second coming of Christ categorically contradicts the teachings of Jesus in the four Gospels Zionism is based on the Old Testament Bible OTB and Revelations in the New Testament both of which are scientifically ridiculous The OTB is also historically questionable about a God interacting with his only chosen people in Middle East and morally criminal God sponsored and assisted armed robbery and genocide to create Israel ancient and modern by todays legal and ethical standards Why has the life and teachings of Jesus Christ not produced universal love and non violence among Christians Why are American Christians the most active supporters of or not speaking out against the wars bombing and destruction by the USA since WWII Are Ashkenazi European Jews really the descendants of Semitic slaves from Egypt What were the reasons for anti Semitism and the Holocaust in Christian Europe of the past Why is the European Union and the US punishing the Palestinians for the Holocaust crimes in Europe Can Gods orders in the Bible be legally used by the United Nations to recreate Israel again in the 20th century after 3000 years by getting rid of Palestinians The book seeks to inform and provoke critical thinking of the readers through this investigation into religion and God and in particular the violent intolerant and self righteous behavior of Christians for centuries past and even in todays enlightened age using the source of the Christian religion the Bible Saving Souls, Serving Society Heidi Rolland Unruh, Ronald J. Sider, 2005-10-06 Recent years have seen unprecedented attention to faith based institutions as agents of social change spurred in part by cuts in public funding for social services and accompanied by controversy about the separation of church and state The debate over faith based initiatives has highlighted a small but growing segment of churches committed to both saving souls and serving society What distinguishes faith based from secular activism How do religious organizations express their religious identity in the context of social services How do faith based service providers interpret the connection between spiritual methodologies and socioeconomic outcomes How does faith motivate and give meaning to social ministry Drawing on case studies of fifteen Philadelphia area Protestant churches with active outreach Saving Souls Serving Society seeks to answer these and other pressing questions surrounding the religious dynamics of social ministry While church based programs often look similar to secular ones in terms of goods or services rendered they may show significant differences in terms of motivations desired outcomes and interpretations of meaning Church based programs also differ from one another in terms of how they relate evangelism to their social outreach agenda Heidi Rolland Unruh and Ronald J Sider explore how churches navigate the tension between their spiritual mission and the constraints on evangelism in the context of social services The authors examine the potential contribution of religious dynamics to social outcomes as well as the relationship between mission orientations and social capital Unruh and Sider introduce a new vocabulary for describing the religious components and spiritual meanings embedded in social action and provide a typology of faith based organizations and programs Their analysis yields a framework for Protestant mission orientations that makes room for the diverse ways that churches interrelate spiritual witness and social compassion Based on their observations the authors offer a constructive approach to church state partnerships and provide a far more objective understanding of faith based social services than previously available

Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens, 2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world DARRYL W STEPHENS director of United Methodist studies at Lancaster Theological Seminary is former assistant general secretary for advocacy and sexual ethics in the UMC s General Commission on the Status and Role of Women He is the coeditor of Professional Sexual Ethics A Holistic Ministry Approach The Complete Idiot's Guide to Christianity Jeffrey B.
