The implementation of international law in Germany and South Africa Mehrdad Payandeh,Silja Vöneky,Dire Tladi,Alexander Proelss,Patrick Vrancken,Leonie Hensgen,Engela Schlemmer,Wolfgang Durner,Lisa Chamberlain,Tumai Murombo,Nicola Wenzel,Lilian Chenwi,Kirsten Schmalenbach,Christopher Gevers,Bonolo Dinokopila,Matthias Herdegen,2015-07-23 South Africa the power house of the African continent as well as Germany Europe s largest economic power are faced with an intricate maze of international obligations whether related to the United Nations the World Trade Organization the African Union or the European Union EU international human rights law international humanitarian law or any other sub regime of international law The two countries are in a different position when facing the implementation of this maze of obligations South Africa is a developing economy that faces various capacity challenges which at times also impact the manner and extent to which it implements its international treaty obligations Germany ont the other hand benefits from comparatively well funded institutes of international law and a well trained academic community which have contributed to the successful implementation of much of international law But as the relevant chapters in this volume show the German case is not without its own complexities As a result an exchange of ideas and experiences pertaining to the implementation of international obligations can prove fruitful for both countries Moreover such an exchange could also serve as a useful point of departure for other countries in Southern Africa that face similar challenges in relation to implementation The current book explores suitable techniques of implementation of international law by comparing South Africa with Germany After a general overview of the status of international law within Germany and South Africa respectively it focuses on the implementation of international instruments pertaining to key sub areas of international law in the two countries These include the United Nations Charter peace and security the international law of the sea international economic law international environmental law international human rights law international criminal law regional integration and the status of international judicial decisions before domestic courts     The Solicitors' Journal and Weekly Reporter, 1907

Revisiting the Law of Occupation Hanne Cuyckens, 2017-10-23 In Revisiting the Law of Occupation Hanne Cuyckens assesses the crucial challenges faced by the law of occupation Through examples such as the occupation of the Palestinian Territories and the 2003 occupation of Iraq the author convincingly demonstrates that although the law of occupation may no longer be perceived as adequate to address contemporary forms of occupation a formal modification of the law is neither desirable nor feasible The author identifies means by which the potential dichotomy between the law and the facts can be addressed without formal modification of the former 1 flexible interpretation of the law itself 2 the role of International Human Rights law as gap filler and 3 the role of the UNSC as a modulator of the law     The Practice of the Railway & Canal Commission Alexander Kaye Butterworth, 1889     Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences Edwin Robert Anderson

Seligman, Alvin Saunders Johnson, 1937     Challenges, risks and threats for security in Europe Andreas Kellerhals, Tobias Baumgartner, 2019-12-06 This publication brings together talks from the 11th Network Europe conference The conference explored the conditions for security in 21st century Europe and the key elements of an appropriate security architecture Discussions focused on major security challenges such as cybercrime and migration as well as institutional aspects including the concept of a European army and the role of neutral states in an evolving security landscape The publication features contributions from Vadym Barskyy Tobias Baumgartner Jelena Ceranic Viorel Cibotaru Aleksei Dolzhikov Alena F Douhan Darina Dvornichenko Itay Fishhendler Andreas Kellerhals Verena Murschetz Przemyslaw Saganek J rgen Scheffran and Attila Vincze Network Europe was founded in 2003 by the Europa Institute at the University of Zurich with support from the Swiss government It serves as a forum for scholarly exchange on legal and political aspects of European integration bringing together researchers from across Europe
