Pioneering Spirituality Cathy Ross,Jonny Baker,2015-10-30 Pioneering ministry sounds like something you do something active even something driven However prayer and contemplation are at its heart paying attention to God to the world and to oneself a kind of being that goes hand in hand with doing Pioneering requires a spirituality that will fuel a life lived beyond the borders of the church In this collection a range of practitioners explore the inner and outer dimensions of pioneering spirituality Offering many proven and innovative ideas they explore what resources fuels and sustains a life of pioneering mission What is the spirituality in the UK s wider culture and how do we connect with it appropriately How might spiritual treasures such as the Eucharist prayer pilgrimage spiritual direction and community rhythms of life be expressed to those with whom pioneers share life And how might communities of disciples grow and be formed in this pioneering spirituality

Christian Spirituality Arthur Holder,2009-09-10 Christian Spirituality The Classics is a unique and comprehensive guide to thirty key Christian spirituality texts Ranging from Origen and Augustine to Jonathan Edwards Th r se of Lisieux and Thomas Merton it offers a view of the texts which is founded in scholarship but which also presents them as living documents that invite even compel contemplative reflection and existential response Each chapter briefly describes the classic text s author and audience gives a synopsis of its contents suggests some of its influence in history and then explores aspects of the text s meaning for readers today Key themes include What is the meaning of life How can human beings find truth How can they discover who they really are How can they live together in peace How can they live more fully in God s presence in this world and be united with God in the world to come The scholars who have written these chapters are all experts on their respective topics but they wear their learning lightly Anyone wishing to discover the riches of Christian spirituality will find this the ideal introduction and should be able to progress to a deeper understanding of the texts themselves

Creativity and Spirituality Maureen Miner,Martin Dowson,2017-02-01 The volume was developed to address conceptual relational and formational questions around the phenomena of creativity and spirituality from a multidisciplinary perspective We acknowledge the complexity of each phenomenon and the need for multiple perspectives in a number of ways First different chapters are written from psychological theological or philosophical perspectives Second multiple research perspectives are considered across empirical and phenomenological methods of inquiry Finally multiple associations between creativity and spirituality are evaluated From such multiple perspectives the theme of this volume emerges Both creativity and spirituality are important for individual and societal flourishing but we know little about fostering both in the 21st century Some ways of fostering them are psychologically harmful and need to be avoided New ways of protecting people as they engage in creative and spiritual endeavours are needed In particular formal training in both creativity and spirituality within the sphere of higher education should be developed in the light of current research However new research that integrates multiple perspectives and examines creativity and spirituality together is needed for training that avoids harm and promotes individual and social flourishing The book will be valuable for educators in all disciplines of higher education because it justifies and explicates training in creativity and spirituality within all areas of higher education Further it discusses how such training might best be included within andragogical practice The book will be useful for researchers of creativity and spirituality because it gives an overview of contemporary research issues and findings and proposes a new philosophical theological perspective for integrative research in these areas Students in fields of creativity theology and spirituality will use the book as a synthesis of contemporary theories and research relating to both creativity and spirituality and for direction in post graduate research More broadly Christians and others who appreciate the creative and performing arts will find much to challenge their thinking and deepen their awareness of spirituality within human creativity

Triumphant Love J Hans Kommers, 2020-11-17 The book is a treasure trove for scholars in the field of science of religion who focus on comparative religion spirituality and the reception of Christianity in India and Ireland The strength of the book is its comprehensive scope critical and narratological methodology and the depth of the data analysis The exposition of the contextual creative and strategic missionary work of Amy Beatrice Carmichael in south India is innovative and highly informative The book contains a high level of original research in that it goes beyond the existing research on the Carmichael biographies The knowledge of the field is comprehensive and the number and quality of sources impressive The biographic genre and methodology complement the extensive research in the book This combination constitutes a genuine historical foundation for the scholarship The main purpose of the book is to open the field of science to and pique the interest of professional theologians with an interest in missiology and in the valuable contribution of Amy Carmichael of Dohnavur The book includes a comprehensive overview of the existing scholarly work on the topic and then makes a further innovative contribution to and in the end provides the most comprehensive picture of the work of Amy Carmichael to date It will become the definitive reference book on the history of Christian missionary work in south India It is original research and no part of the book was plagiarised from any other publication or has been published elsewhere before combined creative and spiritual visions It features some 64 paintings by celebrated artist Luther E Vann with more than approximately 50 accompanying poems and two essays by award winning author Aberjhani The art spanning the early 1970s to 2007 expresses Vann s perception of spiritual principles active in the personal and public lives of people in New York and Savannah Introductory essays comment on Vann s life and his art The poems complement the art with themes that explore issues like war homelessness the nature of love and expanded spiritual consciousness The Darkening Spirit David Tacey, 2013-06-26 The twenty first century could well be Jung s century just as the twentieth century was Freud s Jung predicted the demise of secular humanism and claimed we would search for alternatives to science atheism and reason We would experience a new and even unfashionable appetite for the sacred Educated people however would not return to unreconstructed religions because these do not express the life of the spirit as discerned by modern consciousness The sacred has developed a darker hue and worshipping symbols of light and goodness no longer satisfies the longings of the soul The new sacred cannot be contained by the formulas of the past but nor can we live without a sense of the sacred We stand in a difficult place between traditional religions we have outgrown and a pervasive materialism we can no longer embrace These changes in our culture have come sooner than Jung might have imagined In his time Jung struck many as eccentric or unscientific But his works speak to our time since we have experienced the full gamut of Jungian transformations the unsettling of Judeo Christian culture the rise of the feminine the onslaught of the dark side the critique of modernism and positivism and the recognition that the Western ego is neither the pinnacle of evolution nor the lord of creation A new life is needed beyond the ego but we do not yet know what it will look like The outbreak of strong religion and terrorism are signs of the times but these are expressions of a distorted and repressed spirit and not one hopes genuine pointers to the future What the future holds is uncertain but Jung s prophetic vision helps to prepare us for what is to come and this will be of great interest to analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as to theologians futurists sociologists and the general reader

Modernism and Theology Joanna Rzepa, 2021-03-16 This is the first book length study to examine the interface between literary and theological modernisms It provides a comprehensive account of literary responses to the modernist crisis in Christian theology from a transnational and interdenominational perspective It offers a cultural history of the period considering a wide range of literary and historical sources including novels drama poetry literary criticism encyclicals theological and philosophical treatises periodical publications and wartime propaganda By contextualising literary modernism within the cultural religious and political landscape the book reveals fundamental yet largely forgotten connections between literary and theological modernisms It shows that early twentieth century authors poets and critics including Rainer Maria Rilke T S Eliot and Czesław Miłosz actively engaged with the debates between modernist and neo scholastic theologians raging across Europe These debates contributed to developing new ways of thinking about the relationship between religion and literature and informed contemporary critical writings on aesthetics and poetics
