Select Charters Other 9ed:

Select Charters and Other Illustrations of English Constitutional History (9th Ed., Rev.), 1913 St. Anselm Richard William Southern, 1990 In this magisterial account of the life and work of St Anselm now in paperback Sir Richard Southern provides a study in depth of one of the most fascinating minds in Christian history Legalism Paul Dresch, Hannah Skoda, 2012-08-30 Law and law like institutions are visible in human societies very distant from each other in time and space When it comes to observing and analysing such social constructs historians anthropologists and lawyers run into notorious difficulties in how to conceptualize them Do they conform to a single category of law How are divergent understandings of the nature and purpose of law to be described and explained Such questions reach to the heart of philosophical attempts to understand the nature of law but arise whenever we are confronted by law like practices and concepts in societies not our own In this volume leading historians and anthropologists with an interest in law gather to analyse the nature and meaning of law in diverse societies They start from the concept of legalism taken from the anthropologist Lloyd Fallers whose 1960s work on Africa engaged unusually with jurisprudence The concept highlights appeal to categories and rules The degree to which legalism in this sense informs people's lives varies within and between societies and over time but it can colour equally both simple and complex law Breaking with recent emphases on practice nine specialist contributors explore in a wide ranging set of cases the place of legalism in the workings of social life The essays make obvious the need to question our parochial common sense where ideals of moral order at other times and places differ from those of modern North Atlantic governance State centred law for instance is far from a central case Legalism may be aspirational connecting people to wider visions of morality duty may be as prominent a theme as rights and rulers from thirteenth century England to sixteenth century Burma appropriate as much they impose a vision of justice as consistency The use of explicit categories and rules does not reduce to simple questions of power The cases explored range from ancient Asia Minor to classical India and from medieval England and France to Saharan oases and southern Arabia In each case they assume no knowledge of the society or legal system discussed The volume will appeal not only to historians and anthropologists with an interest in law but to students of law engaged in legal theory for the light it sheds on the strengths and limitations of abstract legal philosophy

The Governments of Europe William Bennett Munro, 1925 Studies in the Constitutional History of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries Bertie Wilkinson, Deer and People Karis Baker, Ruth Carden, Richard Madgwick, 2014-09-30 Deer have been central to human cultures throughout time and space whether as staples to hunter

gatherers icons of Empire or the focus of sport Their social and economic importance has seen some species transported across continents transforming landscape as they went with the establishment of menageries and park The fortunes of other species have been less auspicious some becoming extirpated or being in threat of extinction due to pressures of over hunting and or human instigated environmental change In spite of their diverse deep rooted and long standing relations with human societies no multi disciplinary volume of research on cervids has until now been produced This volume draws together research on deer from wide ranging disciplines and in so doing substantially advances our broader understanding of human deer relationships in the past and the present Themes include species dispersal exploitation patterns symbolic significance material culture and art effects on the landscape and management The temporal span of research ranges from the Pleistocene to the modern day and covers Europe North America and Asia Papers derived from international conferences held at the University of Lincoln and in Paris

Studies in the Constitutional History of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Centuries, Historical Series, No. LXXIII Bertie Wilkinson, Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Vassals, Heiresses, Crusaders, and Thugs Hugh M. Thomas,2016-11-11 In recent decades works of the gentry have revolutionized our understanding of late medieval and early modern England In Vassals Heiresses Crusaders and Thugs Hugh M Thomas takes the study of the gentry back to the period 1154-1216 His conclusions not only reveal remarkable similarities between the gentry of various periods but also shed light on the massive changes that transformed England in the Angevin Period The Governments of Europe William Bennett Munro,1947

Magna Carta Ancestry: A Study in Colonial and Medieval Families, 2nd Edition, 2011, Kings, Barons and Justices Paul Brand,2003-08-07 This book is a study of two important and related pieces of thirteenth century English legislation the Provisions of Westminster of 1259 and the Statute of Marlborough of 1267 and is the first on any of the statutes of this period of major legislative change The Provisions of Westminster were the first major legislation enacted in England after Magna Carta when Henry III surrendered control of government to a baronial council with an agenda of institutional reform The Provisions were revised and reissued by the king in 1263 and a further revision in 1267 produced the Statute of Marlborough Exceptionally good surviving documentation is used to follow the evolution of the individual clauses from initial suggestions for reform through a series of
