Fitton How the Play came to be Written I had better explain why in this little piece d occasion written for a performance in aid of the funds of the project for establishing a National Theatre as a memorial to Shakespear I have identified the Dark

Lady with Mistress Mary Fitton First let me say that I do not contend that the Dark Lady was Mary Fitton because when the case in Mary s favor or against her if you please to consider that the Dark Lady was no better than she ought to have been was complete a portrait of Mary came to light and turned out to be that of a fair lady not of a dark one The Dark Lady The needy and desperate men that must to save themselves from perishing of want give the sillier sort of people what they best like and what they best like God knows is not their own betterment and instruction as we well see by the example of the churches which must needs compel men to frequent them though they be open to all without charge ELIZABETH Master

Shakespear you speak sooth yet cannot I in any wise mend it I dare not offend my unruly Puritans by making so lewd a place as the playhouse a public charge and there be a thousand things to be done in this London of mine before your poetry can have its penny from the general purse I tell thee Master Will it will be three hundred years and more before my subjects learn that man cannot live by bread alone but by every word that cometh from the mouth of those whom God inspires By that time you and I will be dust beneath the feet of the horses if indeed there be any horses then and men be still riding instead of flying Now it may be that by then your works will be dust also 300 Index Prologue TTN Korea English Classics 1 999 7 20
