

Tipos de sesgo (error sistemático en observaciones clínicas)

El sesgo es un proceso que en cualquier etapa de la investigación (recolección, análisis, interpretación o revisión de los datos), tiende a producir resultados que se desvían de los valores verdaderos, dando conclusiones que difieren de la verdad.

El sesgo de selección: se produce cuando se comparan grupos de pacientes que difieren en los factores

El sesgo de medición: se produce cuando los métodos de medición difieren entre los grupos de pacientes.

El sesgo de confusión: se produce cuando dos factores están asociados y el efecto de uno se confunde o queda distorsionado por el efecto del otro.

Descripci n Resumen Ingl s The Spanish Organic Law 3 2007 on women and men equality establishes a double quota of gender representation on electoral lists This fact changed the gender composition of local governments at the most general and elementary level of the Spanish political organization Politicians have had to reconfigure and redefine both their practices and their imaginary to adapt to this new necessarily heterogeneous social stage This dissertation evaluates the gender equality situation in Galician local governments in order to know if the Gender Equality Law has been an effective tool to create an equal participation environment At the same time this research analyzes and discerns covert practices of discrimination against women Through a specifically developed methodology this research presents a detailed analysis of the female access to municipal power as well as of the different situations of vulnerability in which women are found in the different stages of the political process from the selection of the candidates to the appointment of political positions and in the distribution of the management of the work s areas This dissertation contributes to identify potential risk situations for women arising from this new stage of gender political participation In consequence these bad practices could be corrected through the implementation of specific measures to reduce inequality and contributing to achieve effective gender equality
