Christina Stead brings to life one of the most important literary figures of her age Christina Stead left Australia in 1928 aged twenty six for Europe not to return to Australia until she was seventy two An intensely private person Stead lived a life that was stormy eccentric and brave Stead s fiction was large and passionate original and challenging as was her life Hazel Rowley s compelling biography is a vigorous penetrating and sympathetic chronicle of Stead s life and times Enigmatic

Christina Stead Teresa Petersen, 2016-10-18 This is a remarkably stimulating new approach to Stead s fiction and to her psyche In this very strong reading often against the grain the author illuminates Stead s fiction in a way that has never been done before Chris Wallace Crabbe Christina Stead is arguably Australia s greatest female novelist Born and educated in Sydney she spent the greater part of her life abroad having left in 1928 to satisfy a wandering impulse The most famous of her thirteen novels The Man Who Loved Children 1940 is an acknowledged masterpiece of twentieth century fiction Stead s concentrated emotional intensity her interest in extraordinary passion and her keen sense of fantasy and the grotesque have led to comparisons with D H Lawrence Dostoevsky and Dickens Immediately striking are her strong imaginative power and range her verbal brilliance and her acute penetration of character The enigma identified and skilfully unravelled by Teresa Petersen surprisingly has hitherto been unexamined Overtly Stead presents the heterosexual norm as the paradigm par excellence yet she portrays no happy heterosexual relationships or marriages only miserable compromises More covertly lesbian eroticism pervades her fiction Usually shrouded in silence it imperceptibly surfaces and disappears sliding in and out of the narrative Petersen argues compellingly that although Stead s texts appear on the surface to be saturated with the heterosexual norm this is a fa ade that masks both lesbian and male homosexual desire By elucidating Stead s subtextual preoccupation with homosexuality Petersen challenges conventional scholarship and shifts our view of both Stead s work and her life

The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve,2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts

Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s 1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature s connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers

Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney, 2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels It puts the often trenchantly anti suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time Suburban Space the Novel and Australian

Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs suburban interiors homes streets forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong Australian Literary Studies ,1991
