startling and fatal consequences Bowen's depiction of this community of lawyers each in his or her way now divorced from the ideals of justice and mercy that once motivated them all is both compassionate and hard nosed There is Zack the charming but controlling paraplegic Blake and Lily whose daughter Gracie struggles to keep her dignity as her parents marriage falls apart Noah who would rather practise carpentry than the law and his wife Delia who is consumed by worry about the firm The mounting stress among these lawyers is palpable as Joanne delves into their lives And Joanne faces her own personal anxieties too when she discovers that her former lover Inspector Alex Kequahtoo-way is mixed up in what seems to be some very sordid legal business

Creating Better Futures James A. Ogilvy, 2002-04-11 As a founder and managing director of Global Business Network James Ogilvy helped develop the technique of scenario planning which has become an integral part of strategic thinking in both business and government Now Ogilvy shows how we can use this cutting edge method for social change in our own neighborhoods In Creating Better Futures Ogilvy presents a profound new vision of how the world is changing and how it can be changed for the better Ogilvy argues that self defined communities rather than individuals or governments have become the primary agents for social change Towns professional associations and interest groups of all kinds help shape the future in all the ways that matter most from schools and hospitals to urban development The key to improvement is scenario planning a process that draws on groups of people both lay and expert to draft narratives that spell out possible futures some to avoid some inspiring hope Scenario planning has revolutionized both public and private planning leading to everything from the diverse product lines that have revived the auto industry to a timely decision by the state of Colorado to avoid pouring millions into an oil shale industry that never materialized But never before has anyone proposed that it be taken up by society as a whole Drawing on years of experience in both academia and the private sector where he developed both a keen sense of how businesses work best and an abiding passion for changing the world James Ogilvy provides the tools we need to create better communities better health better education better lives
