kinda hard to be into a guy when you watched him eat crayons in kindergarten So she can't believe her luck when she meets a ridiculously hot new guy named Dean Not only does he look like he's fallen out of a classic movie poster but he drives a motorcycle flirts with ease and might actually be into her But Dean's already in college and Keely is convinced he'll drop her if he finds out how inexperienced she is That's when she talks herself into a new plan her lifelong best friend Andrew would never hurt or betray her and he's clearly been with enough girls that he can show her the ropes before she goes all the way with Dean Of course the plan only works if Andrew and Keely stay friends just friends so things are about to get complicated Cameron Lund's delightful debut is a hilarious and heartfelt story of first loves first friends and first times and how making them your own is all that really matters
