Drucker, 2017-07-05 Significant as has been the role of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy in contemporary culture and society its importance continues to grow at an accelerating rate as more specific focused and involving forms of therapy are devised The contributions of eminent practitioners that make up this volume deal with specific types of occurrences in the confrontation between patient and therapist such as silence crying sleeping touching use of first names gifts note taking termination etc The views expressed here demonstrate how the rigidity of early psychoanalytic theory has yielded to fundamental changes in the handling of the analytic situation numerous new schools of thought have arisen in attempts to give deeper fulfillment to the needs of patient analyst and society The persuasions of these new schools Gestaltist existentialist neo Freudian behaviorist ego psychologist rational emotive encounter and many others underlie the material presented here Impulsiveness and originality mark all of these departures from orthodoxy The therapist becoming more open and more manifestly responsive in his interaction with the patient is clearly shifting his role from that of an objective listener and interpreter to that of an overt participant in therapy These trends are further intensified by the fact that the practice of psychotherapy is now carried on by a vast number of clinical psychologists personality psychologists social psychologists and social workers who have taken up psychotherapy as a professional activity in urban mental health clinics and in a variety of settings outside the major American metropolitan areas The Analytic Situation provides informative revealing reading for everyone involved in the psychotherapeutic process It also offers provocative insights to students and therapists in training Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti, 2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores They are spiritcarvers New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non fiction myth and consensual reality imagination and truth do we live within our own selected fictions Identity is shaped by the authors sense of displacement as well as of belonging meeting otherness with dispossession discovering connection through isolation

Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women's writing Maori writing interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand

God's Englishwomen Hilary Hinds, 1996 This book offers a detailed study of the spiritual autobiographies and prophecies produced by Quaker Baptist and Fifth Monarchist women and asks how such a proliferation of texts was produced in a culture dismissive of women's writing

On the Move Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, Helga Ramsey-Kurz, 2012-12-18 In the postcommunist world of organized mobility commodified hospitality and portable devices the category of people labelled as migrants the displaced and refugees symbolize a different kind of movement Among them the postnational figure of the refugee stands out Fleeing their land alone or in a group on foot or on buses and trains or via makeshift boats and commercial flights dressed in unfamiliar clothes and borrowed identities the refugees travel to dare a future from the taken roads Their journey of escape is fraught with danger and despair their survival complicated by the politics of suspicion and their right to return compromised by the power game between sovereign states Waiting for ever in transit zones or living underground like animals but exploited for their labour the refugees are the untouchables of the 21st century who put to test the universal and moral duty of hospitality When the international legal regime of human and humanitarian rights does not come to their rescue refugee women and children feel twice abandoned

This volume of collected essays tries to explore the journey of refugees as represented in New Literatures in English. Who are these refugees? What circumstances triggered their movement? At what point in history? Where do they go? How do they cope? What are their dreams? When does the refugees' silence break into speech and story? How does life assert itself in spite of impending death? Could the death of a refugee be as insignificant as her bare life of exile? Scholars from Europe, Africa, India, and Sri Lanka give here a comprehensive picture of the refugee movement across the globe since the Second World War. The refugee narratives highlight the need to extend the logic of protection from persecution to asylum from economic crisis and ecological imbalance in order to offset the after effects of imperial outreach and industrial expansion. With a short story by Chika Unigwe by way of a foreword and contributions from Petra Tournay, Theodotou Helga Ramsey Kurz, Marta Cariello, Stavros Karayanni, Jean Marie Soungoua, Federico Fabris, Evelyn Hanquart, Turner Annie Cottier, Geetha Ganapathy Dor, G Sujatha, and V Vinod Kumar. Quaker Quicks - In Step with Quaker Testimony Joanna Godfrey Wood, 2021-04-30 Margaret Fell was an inspiring and practical leader in the early Quaker movement in 17th century England. Remembered as the wife of George Fox, her writings have been largely forgotten. This book brings them to life again with excerpts and reflections structured around the four testimonies that have continued to shape Quaker witness to this day: Simplicity, Truth, Equality, and Peace. To do this, Joanna Godfrey Wood follows each passage with a modern adaptation of Fell's words and then explores her own personal responses from a 21st century perspective. We are left with a sense of a strong and beautiful bridge linking past and present. Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy D. C. Phillips, 2014-06-06 The two volume Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy introduces readers to theories that have stood the test of time and those that have provided the historical foundation for the best of contemporary educational theory and practice. Drawing together a team of international scholars, this invaluable reference examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them and presents them in the context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses. Concordance to the Complete Works Sangharakshita, 2024-11-26 With elements of index, dictionary, encyclopaedia, concordance, and collection of quotations, this volume has been designed to act as a comprehensive and accessible guide to the whole of Sangharakshita's Complete Works.
