Reclaiming Healthy Sexual Energy Anne Stirling Hastings,2000 The Pea and the Sun Leonard M.

Wapner,2005-04-29 Take an apple and cut it into five pieces Would you believe that these five pieces can be reassembled in such a fashion so as to create two apples equal in shape and size to the original Would you believe that you could make something as large as the sun by breaking a pea into a finite number of pieces and putting it back together again Neither did Leonard Wapner author of The Pea and the Sun when he was first introduced to the Banach Tarski paradox which asserts exactly such a notion Written in an engaging style The Pea and the Sun catalogues the people events and mathematics that contributed to the discovery of Banach and Tarski s magical paradox Wapner makes one of the most interesting problems of advanced mathematics accessible to the non mathematician

Fleshing Out America Carolyn Sorisio,2002-12-01 Can we work through the imaginative space of literature to combat the divisive nature of the politics of the body That is the central question asked of the writings Carolyn Sorisio investigates in Fleshing Out America The first half of the nineteenth century ushered in an era of powerful scientific and quasi scientific disciplines that assumed innate differences between the types of humankind Some proponents of slavery and Indian Removal as well as opponents of women s rights supplanted the Declaration of Independence s higher law of inborn equality with a new set of laws proclaiming the physical inferiority of women Negroes and Aborigines Fleshing Out America explores the representation of the body in the work of seven authors all of whom were involved with their era s reform movements Lydia Maria Child Frances E W Harper Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Walt Whitman Harriet Jacobs and Martin R Delany For such American writers who connected the individual body symbolically with the body politic the new science was fraught with possibility and peril Covering topics from representation spectatorship and essentialism to difference power and authority Carolyn Sorisio places these writers works in historical context and in relation to contemporary theories of corporeality She shows how these authors struggled in diverse and divergent ways to flesh out America to define even defend the nation s body in a tumultuous period Drawing on Euro and African American authors of both genders who are notable for their aesthetic and political differences Fleshing Out America demonstrates the surprisingly diverse literary conversation taking place as American authors attempted to reshape the politics of the body which shaped the politics of the time

Torn Sprockets Gerald Pratley,1987 The history of Canadian filmmaking is a fascinating topic and in this book the author takes the reader through the early years of the twentieth century when Hollywood monopolized the industry Edison s Kintoscope enthralled the public and motion picture exhibitions swept across Canada Mother Camp Esther Newton,1979-05-15 For two years Ester Newton did field research in the world of drag queens homosexual men who make a living impersonating women Newton spent time in the noisy bars the chaotic dressing rooms and the cheap apartments and hotels that make up the lives of drag queens interviewing informants whose trust she had earned and compiling a lively first hand ethnographic account of the culture of female impersonators Mother Camp explores the distinctions that drag queens make among themselves as performers the various kinds of night clubs and acts they depend on for a living and the social organization of their work A major part of the book deals with the symbolic geography of male and female styles as enacted in the homosexual concept of drag sex role transformation and camp an important humor system cultivated by the drag queens themselves Newton s fascinating book shows how study of the extraordinary can brilliantly illuminate the ordinary that social sexual division of personality appearance and activity we usually take for granted Jonathan Katz author of Gay American History A trenchant statement of the social force and arbitrary nature of gender roles Martin S Weinberg Contemporary Sociology

LGBT Transnational Identity and the Media Christopher Pullen, 2012-02-29 Offering a critical introduction into LGBT lesbian gay bisexual and transgender transnational identity in the media this book examines performances and representations within documentary and fiction oriented texts An interdisciplinary approach is put forward revealing new potentials for non western queer identity

The One-Sex Body on Trial: The Classical and Early Modern Evidence Helen King, 2016-02-17 By far the most influential work on the history of the body across a wide range of academic disciplines remains that of Thomas Laqueur This book puts on trial the one sex two sex model of Laqueur s Making Sex Body and Gender from the Greeks to Freud through a detailed exploration of the ways in which two classical stories of sexual difference were told retold and remade from the mid sixteenth to the nineteenth century Agnodike the first midwife who disguises herself as a man and then exposes herself to her potential patients and Phaethousa who grows a beard after her husband leaves her are stories from the ancient world that resonated in the early modern period in particular Tracing the reception of these tales shows how they provided continuity despite considerable change in medicine being the common property of those on different sides of professional disputes about women s roles in both medicine and midwifery The study reveals how different genres used these stories changing their characters and plots but always invoking the authority of the classics in discussions of sexual identity The study raises important questions about the nature of medical knowledge the relationship between texts and observation and the understanding of sexual difference in the early modern world beyond the one sex model
