The Theological Intentions of Mark's Literary Devices Dean B. Deppe, 2015-10-22 What sets The Theological Intentions of Mark's Literary Devices apart from other books What niche does it fill that makes its publication important This volume will interest all those who value a literary approach to the Gospel of Mark Dean Deppe introduces some new literary devices in the research of the Gospel of Mark as well as demonstrates the theological intentions of Mark when he employs these literary devices Deppe argues that Mark employs the literary devices of intercalation framework allusionary repetitions narrative surprises and three types of mirroring to indicate where he speaks symbolically and metaphorically at two levels Mark employs these literary devices not just for dramatic tension and irony but also for theological reasons to apply the Jesus tradition to specific problems in his own day Aramaic Sources of Mark's Gospel Maurice Casey, 1999-01-07 This 1999 book was the first to use all the Aramaic Dead Sea Scrolls to reconstruct original Aramaic sources from parts of Mark's Gospel The scrolls enabled the author to revolutionize the methodology of such work and to reconstruct whole passages which he interpreted in their original cultural context The passages from which sources are reconstructed are Mark 9 11 13 2 23 3 6 10 35 45 and 14 12 26 A detailed discussion of each passage is offered demonstrating that these sources are completely accurate accounts from the ministry of Jesus from early sabbath disputes to his final Passover An account of the translation process is given showing how problems in Mark's text arose from the difficulty of translating some Aramaic expressions into Greek including the notoriously difficult son of man A very early date for these sources is proposed implying a date of c 40 CE for Mark's Gospel The Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America, 1954 The Code of Federal Regulations is the codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government Code of Federal Regulations, 1955 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries The Theological Role of Paradox in the Gospel of Mark Laura C. Sweat, 2013-10-10 Scholarship on the Gospel of Mark has long been convinced of the paradoxical description of two of its primary themes christology and discipleship This book argues that paradoxical language pervades the entire narrative and that it serves a theological purpose in describing God's activity Part One focuses on divine action present in Mark 4 10 12 In the first paradox Mark portrays God's revelatory acts as consistently accompanied by concealment The second paradox is shown in the various ways in which divine action confirms yet counters scripture Finally Mark describes God's actions in ways that indicate both wastefulness and goodness deeds that are further illuminated by the ongoing yet defeated presence of evil Part Two demonstrates that this paradoxical language is widely attested across Mark's passion narrative as he continues to depict God's activity with the use of the three paradoxes observed in Mark 4 Through paradoxical narrative Mark emphasizes God's transcendence and presence showing that even though Jesus has brought revelation a complete understanding of God remains tantalizingly out of their grasp until the

The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark Gregg S. Morrison,2014-09-24 Based on linguistic and thematic links in the narrative The Turning Point in the Gospel of Mark argues that the twin pericopae of Peter s confession 8 27 38 and the Transfiguration 9 2 13 together function as the turning point of the Gospel and serve in a Janus like manner enabling the reader to see the author s main focus the identity of Jesus and the significance of that reality for his disciples Peter s confession of Jesus as Messiah faces backward toward the Prologue 1 1 13 and functions as a mid course conclusion The declaration by God on the mountain faces forward and foreshadows the end course conclusion 14 61 62 15 39 Son of God Jesus in response teaches that the Son of Man must suffer and die before being raised from the dead 8 31 Christologically the images of Messiah Son of Man and Son of God converge and present Jesus the crucified as king ushering in the kingdom of God in power 9 1 acting as the key swivel between the twin pericopae When one is confronted with this Jesus though there remains something elusive about him and the kingdom of God in the narrative the only wise decision after calculating the costs 8 34 38 is to follow The Trade-mark Reporter ,1943 A harmony or synoptical arrangement of the Gospels, with dissertations, notes, and tables, by L.
