Marriage Among Primitive Peoples:

Marriage Among Primitive Peoples G. S. Wake, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples Margaret Mead, 2002-11-01 When in 1935 Margaret Mead was asked by a member of the interdisciplinary committee of the Social Science Research Council to prepare a survey of several cultures for publication she ended up creating a model for future ethnological survey texts as well as furthering the understanding of cultural relativism in anthropological studies The result of her work Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples is fascinating The essays do not purport to be source materials on the peoples being studied but rather have been assembled as interpretative statements meant to provide a background for planning future research in this field in our own society In many respects this volume is a pioneer effort in anthropological literature It remains firmly part of the genre of cooperative research or interdisciplinary research though at the time of its original publication that phrase had yet to be coined Additionally this work is more theoretical in nature than a faithful anthropological record as all the essays were written in New York City on a low budget and without fieldwork The significance of these studies lies in the fact that Cooperation and Competition Among Primitive Peoples was the first attempt to think about the very complex problems of cultural character and social structure coupled with a meticulous execution of comparative study This work will be of great interest to anthropologists cultural theorists and students of interdisciplinary research The distinguished contributors include Margaret Mead the editor of this volume who authored The Arapesh of New Guinea The Manus of the Admiralty Islands and The Samoans Jeannette Mirsky who contributed The Eskimo of Greenland and The Dakota Ruth Landes who wrote The Ojibwa of Canada May Mandelbaum Edel author of The Bachiga of East Africa Irving Goldman who contributed The Ifugao of the Philippine Islands The Kwakiutl of Vancouver Island The Zuni of New Mexico and The Bathonga of South Africa Buell Quain who penned The Iriquois and Bernard Mishkin author of The Maori of New Zealand Margaret Mead 1901-1978 was associated with the American Museum of Natural History in New York for over fifty years becoming Curator of Ethnology in 1964 She taught at Columbia University and the New School for Social Research as well as a number of other universities and served as president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the American Anthropological Association Among her many books is Continuities in Cultural Evolution available from Transaction Publishers Sacred Prostitution Charles S. Wake, 2010 The Unmarried Mother in German Literature Oscar Helmuth Werner, 1917

Anthropologia, in which are included the proceedings of the London anthropological society [ed. by R.S. Charnock and others]. London anthropological society, Sacred Prostitution & Marriage by Capture Charles

Staniland Wake,1929 Sacred Prostitution, Marriage by Capture, Marriage Among Primitive Peoples and Origin of Serpent Worship G. S. Wake,2002-03-01 Book of Essays about the anthropological sexuality and sociological study of prostitution throughout the history the religious views of sexual licence by woman This collection of very explanatory essays is broken down into four chapters Sacred Prostitution Marriage by Capture Marriage Among Primitive Peoples and Origin of Serpent Worship COOPERATION AND COMPETITION AMONG PRIMITIVE PEOPLES ,1937 God's People in God's Land Christopher J. H. Wright,1990 In recent sociological approaches to the Old Testament Christians have been finding unexpected resources for their ethical reflection and action relative to the modern world s pressing social and economic dilemmas This unique survey by Christopher Wright examines life in Old Testament Israel from an ethical perspective by considering how the economic facts of Israel s social structure were related to the people s religious beliefs Observing the centrality of the family in social economic and religious spheres of Israelite life Wright analyzes Israel s theology of land the rights and responsibilities of property owners and the socioeconomic and legal status of dependent persons in ancient Israel wives children and slaves showing the mutual interaction between such laws institutions and customs and the nation s covenant relationship with God While primarily exegetical God s People in God s Land contains many useful insights for Christian social ethics Wright suggests how the ethical application of his findings might proceed as Christians with different theological perspectives and cultural contexts seek to work out the relevance of the Old Testament for today
