Marriage And Family Life Among The Arabs:

Marriage & Family Life Among the Arabs Salahuddin Khuda Bukhsh, 1953 Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship Handbook of Families in the Arab Gulf States Md Mizanur Rahman, Kaltham Al-Ghanim, Ziarat Hossain, Sharique Umar, 2025-06-30 This open access book collates and advances the body of knowledge about the factors directions and magnitudes of change in Arabian Gulf families from interdisciplinary perspectives Family life across the globe is being impacted by unprecedented diversity in household living arrangements and by sweeping economic cultural and social change and this is not an exception in the Gulf region The book demarcates how Gulf families are experiencing many formidable challenges and undergoing profound changes due to speedy economic transformation educational reforms extensive use of social media rapid urbanization migration women empowerment and the intersections of popular culture from both the East and the West Notwithstanding such challenges and changes Gulf families often seem to retain and continue many of the traditional roles and functions of families in a sustained manner It contributes to current debates that revolve around questions of what has changed and what has stayed the same in family structures in the region Sweeping and comparative the book provides avenues for offering practical solutions for policy interventions in Kuwait the United Arab Emirates Qatar Bahrain Oman and Saudi Arabia It is a key academic text for sociologists interested in transformations in the family in relation to politics economics consumption patterns education gender law social media religion culture social reforms and the state Islam, Family Life, and Gender Inequality in Urban China Xiaowei Zang, 2012-06-12 This book studies the relationship between Islam family processes and gender inequality among Uyghur Muslims in r mchi China Empirically it shows in quantitative terms the extent of gender inequalities among Uyghur Muslims in r mchi and tests whether the gender inequalities are a difference in kind or in degree It examines five aspects of gender inequality employment income household task accomplishment home management and spousal power Theoretically it investigates how Islamic affiliation and family life affect Uyghur women s status Zang s research involved rare and privileged access to a setting which is difficult for foreign scholars to study due to political restrictions The data are drawn from fieldwork in r mchi between 2005 and 2008 which include a survey of 577 families field observations and 200 in depth interviews with local Uyghurs The book combines qualitative and quantitative data and methods to study gendered behavior and outcomes The author s study reinterprets family power and offers a more nuanced analysis of gender and domestic power in China and makes a pioneering effort to study spousal power gender inequality in labor market outcomes and gender inequality in household chores among members of ethnic minorities in China The book will be of interest to students and scholars of ethnic studies Chinese studies Asian anthropology and cultural sociology International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous,1967

The Moslem World Samuel Marinus Zwemer,1926 Studies Salahuddin Khuda Bukhsh,1927 The Handbook of Marriage in the Arab World Ahmed Aref,Md Mizanur Rahman,2024-11-30 This open access handbook combines multiple theoretical and practical approaches for enabling a nuanced understanding of the phenomenon of marriage in the Arab world Adopting a holistic interdisciplinary approach it provides a framework for the contextual and macro factors surrounding and affecting marriage in the Arab countries It looks at the different types of marriage whether traditional or new to the Arab world and takes a detailed examination of the dialectic of marriage and age It considers the dynamics surrounding delayed marriages early marriages celibacy marriage costs and age gaps between spouses In addition it examines marital relations vis vis a diverse array of sub topics including marital and emotional satisfaction and violence It also looks at the relationship between work and marriage and explores how women s work affects their family relationships and intimacy Finally it offers a rich analysis of two core marriage related issues in the modern Arab world migration and its positive negative impacts on the institution of marriage and marriage in the context of war and conflict as present in several areas within the Arab region A sociological magnum opus for social science students and researchers in areas of marriage studies gender studies family studies the sociology of work peace and conflict studies human migration and economics it is also relevant to policymakers politicians social workers and human rights and migration activists working in the Arab world and beyond Religion and Family Life Richard J. Petts,2019-05-03 There has been increased interest among scholars in recent decades focused on the intersection of family and religion Yet there is still much that is not well understood in this area This aim of this special issue is to further explore the influence of religion on family life In particular this issue includes a collection of studies from leading scholars on religion and family life that focus on ways in which religion and spirituality may influence various aspects of family life including family processes family structure family formation family dissolution parenting and family relationships The studies included incorporate both qualitative and quantitative analyses incorporate a number of different religious traditions focus on religiosity among both adults and youth and explore a number of important issues such as depression intimacy sexual behavior lying divorce and faith transmission The Arab Civilization Joseph Hell, 1926
