Do We Need a Marriage Contract? Michael G. Cochrane, 2010-05-14 Congratulations You've decided to get married. It's a wonderful time but there's more to think about than just the perfect wedding and honeymoon. Marriage is more complicated than it used to be. People are marrying later in life and perhaps for the second or third time. Often they are bringing more assets and more liabilities into the relationship, blending children from previous relationships and generally facing all kinds of new challenges. Marriage contracts, wills and Powers of Attorney are all valuable ways to set your expectations in advance. Do We Need a Marriage Contract? is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases. Cochrane includes a sample marriage contract to address the critical issues you need to be aware of including: Protection of assets brought into the marriage, The special practical and financial concerns of blending children into new families, Family pressure to have a marriage contract, Business pressure to have a marriage contract, How to have a discussion with your partner and not spoil the romance, How marriage contracts work with your wills and Powers of Attorney, How to work in a cost effective way with a lawyer, How to avoid the relationship mistakes that lead to divorce. This is your future together. Get it right from the very beginning. Take the advice of Michael Cochrane, a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience in family law and carefully consider the numerous issues that can affect your relationship. The Marriage Contract Lenore J. Weitzman, 1981 The Marriage Agreement Carolyn Davidson, 2010 The Marriage Contract Lenore J. Weitzman, 1983 A practical guide to the rights and responsibilities of living together offers advice on writing an explicit contract, what it means, how it works and how to plan for a couple's special needs. Do We Need a Cohabitation Agreement? Michael G. Cochrane, 2010-05-14 You're committed, you're moving in together and you're blending your households. But are you forgetting something? Many Canadians find themselves in common law relationships and think that they aren't any different from a legal marriage. It can be a shock to find out that when the going gets tough, certain rights under the law, not to mention financial obligations, do or do not apply. For instance, if one common law partner becomes seriously ill or passes away, will the other be able to access joint bank accounts? Their shared home? What happens if there is no will? And what about the kids? These are some of the many serious questions that couples need to consider before sharing their lives, all of which can be addressed in a cohabitation agreement. A cohabitation agreement allows a couple to make sure their partner and any children are taken care of in times of need or crisis, that ownership in properties or financial resources are clear, combined, separated or protected. Most of all, these contracts allow for the peace of mind that comes with having a game plan in place should the relationship end due to death or separation. Take the advice of Michael Cochrane, a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience and consider the numerous issues that can affect a common law relationship. Do We Need a Cohabitation Agreement? is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases. Cochrane addresses critical issues such as wills and estates, powers of attorney, the special concerns of step families and same sex couples and how to have this discussion with your partner It will also help you work in a cost effective way with a lawyer should you decide that an agreement will benefit your relationship This is your future together Get it right from the very beginning

The Islamic Marriage Contract Asifa Quraishi, Frank E. Vogel,2022-10-07 It is often said that marriage in Islamic law is a civil contract not a sacrament If this is so this means that the marriage contract is largely governed by the same rules as other contracts such as sale or hire But at the same time marriage is a profound concern of the Islamic scriptures of Qur'an and Sunna and thus at the very core of the law and morality of Islam and of the individual familial and social life of Muslims This volume collects papers from many disciplines examining the Muslim marriage contract Articles cover doctrines as to marriage contracts e.g. may a wife stipulate monogamy historical instances e g legal advice from thirteenth century Spain comparisons with Jewish and canon law contemporary legal and social practice and projects of activists for women worldwide Demonstrating a new and powerful focus for comparative and historical inquiries into Islamic law and social practices this book marks a fresh point of departure for the study of Muslim women
