Marriage Mental Handicap A Study Of Subnormality In Marriage

Joan Aldous

Marriage Mental Handicap A Study Of Subnormality In Marriage:

Handicapped Married Couples Ann Craft, Michael Craft, 2023-07-05 Despite handicaps of low mental ability deprived backgrounds or psychiatric and physical disability most married couples with disabilities manage to give and receive much personal satisfaction and pleasure in their marriages This is of special interest to professionals and social workers who in the course of their jobs are called upon to give support and service to people with mental disabilities Originally published in 1979 Ann and Michael Craft had spent four years researching a sample of 45 marriages with at least one spouse with a mental disability In three quarters of the partnerships both spouses have a mental disability This was the largest group of married subjects with a mental disability studied in this country at the time and the Crafts conclusions were of considerable importance for with the recent trend towards normalization marriage was becoming a viable possibility for more and more people with mental disabilities The purposes of the study therefore were to give an account of the authors research concerning married couples with mental disabilities to suggest some ways in which service to such couples might be improved and to provide material for teaching purposes This book is a re issue originally published in 1979 The language used is a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re publication International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous, 1967 International Review of Research in Mental Retardation , 1993-07-12 International Review of Research in Mental Retardation The Journal of Mental Subnormality , 1961 The Mentally Subnormal Margaret Adams, Howard Lovejoy, 2014-05-20 The Mentally Subnormal Social Work Approaches Second Edition provides a discussion of the various issues faced by mentally challenged individuals The book is comprised of eight chapters that talk about the role of social workers in mitigating the problem The text first details the development of ideas and legislation relating to the mentally subnormal and then proceeds to presenting a view of the issue in a medical perspective The next chapter discusses the principles of casework in the field Chapter 4 talks about the role of community social care while Chapter 5 deals with social services to the mentally retarded and their families The sixth chapter covers social work in residential settings The remaining chapters tackle the employment problem of mentally handicapped and the implications for services of social research in mental retardation The book will be of great interest to students researchers and practitioners of disciplines that deal with the implication of mental incapacity for society such as psychology sociology and psychiatry The Style and Management of a Pediatric Practice Lee W. Bass, Jerome H. Wolfson, 1977 This is a reprint of a previously published work It is a thoughtful presentation of the authors personal style of pediatric practice It treats office design and procedure important medical techniques and routine self limited childhood illnesses and injuries Clifford W. Beers Norman Dain, 1980-07-15 Norman Dain offers a compelling biography of Clifford W Beers whose lifelong battle against his own mental illness inspired him to become a champion for mental health Beers autobiography A Mind That Found Itself created a public outcry in 1908 as it chronicled Beers experiences during his three year confinement in an asylum Despite his disability Beers went on to found the National Committee for Mental Hygiene now the National Association for Mental Health the American Foundation for Mental Hygiene and the International Committee for Mental Hygiene Canadian Psychiatric Association Journal Canadian Psychiatric Association,1972 ‘Blood Is Thicker Than Water’ - Non-Royal Consanguineous Marriage in Ancient Egypt

Joanne-Marie Robinson,2020-06-25 This volume presents for the first time evidence for non royal consanguineous marriage in ancient Egypt The evidence was collated from select sources from the Middle Kingdom to the Roman Period and it has been used to investigate the potential economic and biological outcomes particularly beyond the level of sibling and half sibling unions Current Issues in Clinical

Psychology Eric Karas,2012-12-06 This book is the second volume in the series Current Issues in Clinical Psychology which is designed to build into a composite text of the field of clinical psychology The contents of the series are based on the post qualification training conferences held each autumn in Merseyside These events organised by a sub group of the training committee of the Mersey Regional Group of Clinical Psychologists are unique in that they are the only annual psychology conferences in Britain focussing exclusively on clinical areas The opening paper of Volume 1 of the series emphasised the importance of the present disposition towards sustained clinical training for practising psychologists The series Current Issues in Clinical Psychology represents a contribution to this trend by offering practitioners an opportunity to assimilate innovations in clinical theory and practice in the young but vigorously developing discipline of clinical psychology In order to provide a forum for contemporary issues and also to produce complementary texts of lasting value it has been necessary to carefully select both the theme of each symposium and contributors able to fulfill these aims
