Marse Henry An Autobiography Volume :

"Marse Henry" Henry Watterson, 1919 Marse Henry: An Autobiography (Complete) Henry Watterson, I am asked to jot down a few autobiographic odds and ends from such data of record and memory as I may retain I have been something of a student of life an observer of men and women and affairs an appraiser of their character their conduct and on occasion of their motives Thus a kind of instinct which bred a tendency and grew to a habit has led me into many and diverse companies the lowest not always the meanest Circumstance has rather favored than hindered this bent I was born in a party camp and grew to manhood on a political battlefield I have lived through stirring times and in the thick of events In a vein colloquial and reminiscential not ambitious let me recall some impressions which these have left upon the mind of one who long ago reached and turned the corner of the Scriptural limitation who approaching fourscore does not yet feel painfully the frost of age beneath the ravage of time s defacing waves Assuredly they have not obliterated his sense either of vision or vista Mindful of the adjuration of Burns Keep something to yourself Ye scarcely tell to only I shall yet hold little in reserve having no state secrets or mysteries of the soul to reveal It is not my purpose to be or to seem oracular I shall not write after the manner of Rousseau whose Confessions had been better honored in the breach than the observance and in any event whose sincerity will bear question nor have I tales to tell after the manner of Paul Barras whose Memoirs have earned him an immortality of infamy Neither shall I emulate the grandiose volubility and self complacent posing of Metternich and Talleyrand whose pretentious volumes rest for the most part unopened upon dusty shelves I aspire to none of the honors of the historian It shall be my aim as far as may be to avoid the garrulity of the raconteur and to restrain the exaggerations of the ego But neither fear of the charge of self exploitation nor the specter of a modesty oft too obtrusive to be real shall deter me from a proper freedom of narration where though in the main but a humble chronicler I must needs appear upon the scene and speak of myself for I at least have not always been a dummy and have sometimes in a way helped to make history In my early life as it were my salad days I aspired to becoming what old Simon Cameron called one of those damned literary fellows and Thomas Carlyle less profanely described as a leeterary celeebtrity But some malign fate always sat upon my ambitions in this regard It was easy to become The National Gambler in Nast s cartoons and yet easier The National Drunkard through the medium of the everlasting mint julep joke but the phantom of the laurel crown would never linger upon my fair young brow Though I wrote verses for the early issues of Harper s Weekly happily no one can now prove them on me for even at that jejune period I had the prudence to use an anonym the Harpers luckily for me declined to publish a volume of my poems I went to London carrying with me the great American novel It was actually accepted by my ever too partial friend Alexander Macmillan But rest his dear old soul he died and his successors refused to see the transcendent merit of that performance a view which my own maturing sense of belles lettres values subsequently came to verify When George Harvey arrived at the front I ad opes But Lord that cast iron man had never any bookish bowels of compassion or political either for the matter of that so that finally I gave up fiction and resigned myself to the humble category of the crushed tragi comedians of literature who inevitably drift into journalism Thus my destiny has been casual A great man of letters quite thwarted I became a newspaper reporter a voluminous space writer for the press now and again an editor and managing editor until when I was nearly thirty years of age I hit the Kentucky trail and set up for a journalist I did this however with a big J nursing for a while some faint ambitions of statesmanship even office but in the end discarding everything that might obstruct my entire freedom for I came into the world an insurgent or as I have sometimes described myself in the Kentucky vernacular a free nigger and not a slave nigger Marse Henry Henry Watterson,2013-12 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
