Understanding Media: The Extensions of Man Marshall McLuhan, 1964 The Beatles and McLuhan Thomas

MacFarlane, 2013 In the 1960s The Beatles would address like no other musical act a radical shift in the cultural mindset of the late twentieth century Through tools of electric technology this shift encompassed the decline of visual modes of perception and the emergence of a way of knowing based increasingly on sound In this respect the musical works of The Beatles would come to resonate with and ultimately reflect Marshall McLuhan's ideas on the transition into a culture of all at once a simultaneous world in which immersion in vibrant global community increasingly trumps the fixed viewpoint of the individual By engaging with recording technologies in a way that no popular act had before The Beatles opened up for exploration the acoustical space precipitated by this shift In The Beatles and McLuhan Understanding the Electric Age scholar and musician Thomas MacFarlane examines how the incorporation of electric technology in The Beatles' art would enhance their musical impact MacFarlane surveys the relationship between McLuhan's ideas on the nature and effects of electric technology and The Beatles' own engagement of that technology offers analyses of key works from The Beatles' studio years with particular attention paid to the presence of cultural metaphors embedded in the medium of multi track recording and collates these data to offer stunning conclusions about The Beatles' creative process in the recording studio and its cultural implications This work also features the first published transcriptions ever of the complete filmed conversation between John Lennon and Marshall McLuhan on their respective ideas as well as an interview between MacFarlane and McLuhan's son and executor Michael McLuhan on his father's and the Beatles' legacy The Beatles and McLuhan will interest scholars and students of music and music history recording technology media studies communications and popular culture

Poetry and Culture in Britain, Canada and the United States Jonathan Locke Hart, 2025-03-18 This book is about poetry and the poetic in the cultures and literatures of Britain Canada and the United States Close reading is the primary method The figures discussed in the book were born from 1911 to the post war years after 1945 The volume proceeds from Marshall McLuhan as a poet through Douglas LePan Ted Hughes Leonard Cohen Margaret Atwood Thomas King and Forrest Gander to Hannah Lowe Russell Leong Marilyn Chin Fred Wah interpoetics poetry and culture in Chinese diasporic poetry Louis Riel Pauline Johnson Naomi McIlwraith Indigenous and Métis poetry Gaspar Pérez de Villagrá Anne Bradstreet Phillis Wheatley Langston Hughes Joan Kane Russell Leong Marilyn Chin and Forrest Gander the multiple makings of poetry of North America Here is a poetry of the North Atlantic world a transatlantic poetics then and now The book reads poetry and the poetic in terms of media aesthetics drama criticism music interpoetics diaspora culture diversity and African Asian and Indigenous poets Digital Modernism Jessica Pressman, 2014-01-03 While most critical studies of born digital literature celebrate it as a postmodern art form with roots in contemporary technologies and social interactions Digital Modernism provides an alternative genealogy Grounding her argument in literary history media studies and the practice of close reading Jessica Pressman pairs modernist works by Ezra Pound James Joyce and Bob Brown with major digital works like William Poundstone's Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit Young hae Chang Heavy Industries's Dakota and Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter to demonstrate how the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s laid the groundwork for the innovations of electronic literature Accordingly Digital Modernism makes the case for considering these digital creations as literature and argues for the value of reading them carefully closely and within literary history

Transforming McLuhan Paul Grosswiler, 2010 Transforming McLuhan explores the radical humanist line of descent in interpreting Canadian media and culture theorist Marshall McLuhan's work rejecting the dominant view of McLuhan as a conservative uncritical herald of technological determinism and capitalism This McLuhan is the oppositional critic of modernity resisting uncontrolled technological change who seeks new media forms with a human face Contributors from diverse international and academic perspectives include Douglas Kellner Nick Stevenson Gary Genosko Richard Cavell Lance Strate Glenn Willmott Patrick Brantlinger Donna Flayhan and Bob Hanke Marshall McLuhan was the first to theorize and to develop a concept of media indicating their importance to all areas of society and culture Today media are far more pervasive than in the 1950s and 1960s when he wrote Yet his work has still not received its due attention Transforming McLuhan will begin to correct this oversight Mark Poster University of California Irvine Author of What's the Matter with the Internet and Information Please Transforming McLuhan re-reads the McLuhan phenomenon in light of today's media saturated 24/7 news and smartphone world Here we meet again with the visionary Tiresias in the Underworld whose dark sayings once lit the late afternoon of the twentieth century These critical readings create a time out to question him again and to open space time interstices for alternate thoughts and alternate actions Michael Heim Mount St Mary's College Los Angeles Author of The Metaphysics of Virtual Reality and Virtual Realism Transforming McLuhan offers a rich and textured reconsideration of Marshall McLuhan's ideas demonstrating how McLuhan's work is a better match for current multi-dimensional and ambivalent understandings of media and culture than it was for the narrower conceptions that guided those who dismissed McLuhan in his own time These provocative and well-written essays persuasively engage in what I have called morphing McLuhan with other key theoretical frameworks As a result Transforming McLuhan illustrates that cultural theorists have much to learn from McLuhanism but that McLuhan's perspective also has much room for enrichment from critical media studies Joshua Meyrowitz University of New Hampshire Author of No Sense of Place The Impact of Media on Social Behavior BOOK JACKET

Canadian Intellectuals, the Tory Tradition, and the Challenge of Modernity, 1939-1970 Philip Massolin, 2015-05-27

In this well-researched book Philip Massolin takes a fascinating look at the forces of modernization that swept through English Canada beginning at the turn of the twentieth century Victorian values agrarian religious and the adherence to a rigid set of philosophical and moral codes were being replaced with those intrinsic to the modern age industrial secular scientific and anti intellectual This work analyses the development of a modern consciousness through the eyes of the most fervent critics of modernity adherents to the moral and value systems associated with Canada's tory tradition The work and thought of social and moral critics Harold Innis Donald Creighton Vincent Massey Hilda Neatby George P Grant W L Morton Northrop Frye and Marshall McLuhan are considered for their views of modernization and for their strong opinions on the nature and implications of the modern age These scholars shared concerns over the dire effects of modernity and the need to attune Canadians to the realities of the modern age Whereas most Canadians were oblivious to the effects of modernization these critics perceived something ominous far from being a sign of true progress modernization was a blight on cultural development In spite of the efforts of these critics Canada emerged as a fully modern nation by the 1970s Because of the triumph of modernity the toryism that the critics advocated ceased to be a defining feature of the nation's life Modernization in short contributed to the passing of an intellectual tradition centuries in the making and rapidly led to the ideological underpinnings of today's modern Canada

McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture
