Marshall Plan Today Model And Metaphor:

The Marshall Plan Today John Agnew,J. Nicholas Entrikin,2004 This book goes beyond diplomatic history to place the Marshall Plan in the context of both the political economy of late 20th century Europe and the impact of American models of business and government that came with the Plan

The Marshall Plan Today John Agnew,J. Nicholas Entrikin,2004-06-24 This volume has as its focus the role of the Marshall Plan as both a force in the transformation of European Economic practices and a stimulus to political integration in Europe This organizing theme is framed in terms of two other issues that are central to contemporary debates in international political economy and geopolitical studies the origins and development of the Cold War and the growing globalisation of the world economy In relating the Marshall Plan to these issues this book goes beyond the typical diplomatic history approach to place the Plan in the context of both the political economy of late twentieth century Europe and the impact of American models of business and government that came with the Plan

The Marshall Plan Benn Steil,2018-02-13 A brilliant book by far the best study yet The Wall Street Journal of the gripping history behind the Marshall Plan and its long lasting influence on our world In the wake of World War II with Britain s empire collapsing and Stalin s on the rise US officials under new Secretary of State George C Marshall set out to reconstruct western Europe as a bulwark against communist authoritarianism Their massive costly and ambitious undertaking would confront Europeans and Americans alike with a vision at odds with their history and self conceptions In the process they would drive the creation of NATO the European Union and a Western identity that continue to shape world events Benn Steil s thoroughly researched and well written account USA TODAY tells the story behind the birth of the Cold War told with verve insight and resonance for today Focusing on the critical years 1947 to 1949 Benn Steil s gripping narrative takes us through the seminal episodes marking the collapse of postwar US Soviet relations the Prague coup the Berlin blockade and the division of Germany In each case Stalin s determination to crush the Marshall Plan and undermine American power in Europe is vividly portrayed Bringing to bear fascinating new material from American Russian German and other European archives Steil s account will forever change how we see the Marshall Plan Trenchant and timely an ambitious deeply researched narrative that provides a fresh perspective on the coming Cold War The New York Times Book Review The Marshall Plan is a polished and masterly work of historical narrative An instant classic of Cold War literature it is a gripping complex and critically important story that is told with clarity and precision The Christian Science Monitor Winner of the 2019 New York Historical Society Barbara and David Zalaznick Book Prize in American History Winner of the 2018 American Academy of Diplomacy Douglas Dillon Award Shortlisted for the 2018 Duff Cooper Prize in Literary Nonfiction Honorable Mention runner up for the 2019 ASEEES Marshall D Shulman Prize

Normative Readings of the Belt and Road Initiative Wenhua Shan,Kimmo Nuotio,Kangle Zhang,2018-05-31 This timely book offers revealing insights into the changing role of China in world governance as exemplified by the Silk Road Initiative the People s Republic s first published major initiative for external affairs Focusing on various aspects of the Silk Road Initiative particularly those that are largely neglected in current discussions including culture and philosophy finance and investment environmental protection and social responsibility judiciary and lawyers the authors explore a wide range of contexts in which China's role as an emerging power in international relations and international law is examined In the current era of ever increasing populism protectionism and challenges to globalization the authors explore the Chinese philosophy underpinning Chinese norms of regional and international development Bearing in mind the political and economic uncertainties hampering the establishment of such norms the authors offer crucial insights into how the Silk Road Initiative could or should be developed and regulated Given its depth of coverage the book is an indispensable read for anyone interested in the Initiative and its social legal implications

The New Global Insecurity Fathali M. Moghaddam, 2010-01-22 A noted conflict expert shows how accelerating globalization is causing dangerous global insecurity that must be met by new security models and policies The New Global Insecurity How Terrorism Environmental Collapse Economic Inequalities and Resource Shortages Are Changing Our World explores insecurity arising out of accelerating globalization In this unique and forward thinking work psychologist Fathali M Moghaddam director of the Conflict Studies Program at Georgetown University explains how and why worldwide insecurity is rising and what steps we must take to quell or reverse that insecurity to make the future of the world more peaceful The book first analyzes the elements and roots of global insecurity discussing it in relation to terrorism torture economic instability threatened identity and religious fundamentalism It then puts forward a new model for understanding security wherein soft security capital serves as the enabling condition for hard security capital Finally the current policies for managing diversity multiculturalism and assimilation are both rejected in favor of an exciting new policy omniculturalism Drawing on his years of study and expertise Moghaddam likewise proposes a new policy for better managing intergroup relations in an insecure age

New Europe's New Development Aid Balázs Szent-Iványi, Simon Lightfoot, 2015-04-17 This book examines the international development policies of five East Central European new EU member states the Czech Republic Hungary Poland Slovakia and Slovenia These countries turned from being aid recipients to donors after the turn of the millennium in the run up to EU accession in 2004 The book explains the evolution subsequent to EU accession and current state of foreign aid policies in the region and the reasons why these deviate from many of the internationally agreed best practices in development cooperation It argues that after the turn of the millennium a Global Consensus has emerged on how to make foreign aid more effective for development A comparison between the elements of the Global Consensus and the performance of the five countries reveals that while they have generally implemented little of these recommendations there are also emerging differences between the countries with the Czech Republic and Slovenia clearly aspiring to become globally responsible donors Building on the literatures on foreign policy analysis international socialization and interest group influence the book develops a model of foreign aid policy making in order to explain the general reluctance of the five countries in implementing international best practices and also the differences in their relative performance

Envisioning Landscapes, Making Worlds Stephen Daniels, Dydia DeLyser, J. Nicholas Entrikin, Doug Richardson, 2012-03-15 There has been a remarkable resurgence in the past decade of intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles Terminology and concepts such as space place landscape mapping and geography are becoming pervasive as conceptual frameworks and core metaphors in recent publications by humanities scholars and well known writers Envisioning Landscapes Making Worlds examines the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors With contributions from leading scholars this text is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to understand the new synergies and interconnectedness of geography and the humanities

The Place of Landscape Jeff Malpas, 2011 Interdisciplinary perspectives on landscape from the philosophical to the geographical with an emphasis on the overarching concept of place This volume explores the conceptual topography of landscape It examines the character of landscape as itself a mode of place as well as the modes of place that appear in relation to landscape Leading scholars from a range of disciplines explore the concept of landscape including its supposed relation to the spectatorial its character as time space its relation to indigenous notions of country and its liminality They examine landscape as it appears within a variety of contexts from geography through photography and garden history to theology and more specific studies look at the forms of landscape in medieval landscape painting film and television and in relation to national identity The essays demonstrate that the study of landscape cannot be restricted to any one genre cannot be taken as the exclusive province of any one discipline and cannot be exhausted by any single form of analysis What the place of landscape now evokes is itself a wide ranging terrain encompassing issues concerning the nature of place of human being in place and of the structures that shape such being and are shaped by it

Why Do Elections Matter in Africa? Nic Cheeseman, Gabrielle Lynch, Justin Willis, 2021-02-18 A radical new approach to understanding Africa's elections explaining why politicians bureaucrats and voters so frequently break electoral rules

The New Global Trading Order Dennis Patterson, Ari Afilalo, 2008-03-31 The international institutions that have governed global trade since the end of World War II have lost their effectiveness and global trade governance is fractured The need for new institutions is obvious and yet few proposals seem to be on offer The key to understanding the global trading order lies in uncovering the relationship between trade and the State and how the inner constitution of Statecraft drives the architecture of the global order and requires structural changes as the State traverses successive cycles The current trade order focused on the liberalization of trade in goods and services and the management of related issues is predicated on policies and practices that were the product of a global trading order of the 20th century modern nation states Today a new form of the State the post modern State is evolving In this book the authors propose a new trade norm the enablement of global economic opportunity and a new institution the Trade Council to overhaul the global trading order
