Martyrdom And Rome:

Martyrdom and Rome G. W. Bowersock, 2002-10-03 This book examines the historical context of the earliest Christian martyrs and anchors their grisly and often wilful self sacrifice to the everyday life and outlook of the cities of the Roman empire Professor Bowersock begins by investigating both the time and the region in which martyrdom as we know it came into being He also offers comparisons of the Graeco Roman background with the martyrology of Jews and Muslims A study of official protocols illuminates the bureaucratic institutions of the Roman state as they applied to the first martyrs and the martyrdoms themselves are seen within the context of urban life and public spectacle in the great imperial cities By considering martyrdom in relation to suicide the author is also able to demonstrate the peculiarly Roman character of Christian self sacrifice in relation to other forms of deadly resistance to authority Valeria, the Martyr of the Catacombs: A Tale of Early Christian Life in Rome W. H. Withrow, 2021-04-25 In Valeria the Martyr of the Catacombs A Tale of Early Christian Life in Rome W H Withrow crafts a vivid narrative that immerses readers into the tumultuous world of early Christianity amidst the oppressive Roman Empire This historical fiction piece unfolds the trials and tribulations faced by Valeria a devout Christian as she navigates persecution and struggles for faith within the treacherous depths of the catacombs Withrow s evocative prose and meticulous attention to historical detail paints a compelling portrait of faith resilience and the spirit of early Christian communities in a richly textured literary style that appeals to both scholars and casual readers alike W H Withrow was a passionate historian and theologian well acquainted with the trials of early Christians which likely inspired him to delve into the historical context of his work His extensive study of Christian martyrdom and religious persecution reflects a deep commitment to bringing the stories of these individuals to life This exploration not only sheds light on Valeria s personal journey but also situates her narrative within larger themes of faith sacrifice and societal struggle that resonate with contemporary discussions surrounding belief and identity I highly recommend Valeria the Martyr of the Catacombs to anyone interested in the intersection of faith and history Withrow s captivating storytelling invites readers to empathize with the challenges faced by followers of early Christianity offering insights that still hold relevance today This narrative not only educates but also inspires making it an important addition to the canon of religious literature In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read Love and Martyrdom in Rome Jutta Ihlenfeld, Rudy N. insights into the practices of self sacrifice within specific sociopolitical contexts Providing a new understanding of martyrdom through the lens of political theology he analyzes discourses and performances in four religious traditions during social and political crises beginning with second century Christianity in Asia Minor where the term martyr first took its meaning He also analyzes Shi a Islam in the 1980s when suicide bombing first appeared as a strategy in West Asia global Sikhism during World War I where martyrs stood for and against the British Raj and twenty first century Tibetan Buddhism where self immolators used their bodies in opposition to the programs of the People s Republic of China Presenting a new theory of martyrdom linked to constructions of sovereign authority Soboslai reveals common features of self sacrifice and demonstrates how bodily performances buttress conceptions of authority The Works of Nathaniel Lardner Nathaniel Lardner,1815

Using perspectives on death from ancient Greek Roman and Jewish traditions a theology professor discusses the history of Christian martyrdom and challenges the traditional understanding of the spread of Christianity Christians in Caesar's Household Michael Flexsenhar III,2020-02-28 In this volume Michael Flexsenhar III advances the argument that imperial slaves and freedpersons in the Roman Empire were essential to early Christians self conception as a distinct people in the Mediterranean and played a multifaceted role in the making of early Christianity Scholarship in early Christianity has for centuries viewed Roman emperors slaves and freedmen as responsible for ushering Christianity onto the world stage traditionally using Paul s allusion to the saints from Caesar s household in Philippians 4 22 as a core literary lens Merging textual and material evidence with diaspora and memory studies Flexsenhar expands on this narrative to explore new and more nuanced representations of this group showing how the long accepted stories of Christian slaves and freedpersons in Caesar s household should not be taken at face value but should instead be understood within the context of Christian myth and meaning making Flexsenhar analyzes textual and material evidence from the first to the sixth century spanning Roman Asia the Aegean rim Gaul and the coast of North Africa as well as the imperial capital itself As a result this book shows how stories of the emperor s slaves were integral to key developments in the spread of Christianity generating origin myths in Rome and establishing a shared history and geography there differentiating and negotiating assimilation with other groups and expressing commemorative language ritual acts and a material culture With its thoughtful critical readings of literary and material sources and its fresh analysis of the lived experiences of imperial slaves and freedpersons Christians in Caesar s Household is indispensable reading for scholars of early Christianity the origins of religion and the Roman Empire
