Martyred Christian 160 Readings:

The Martyred Christian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1983 Bonhoeffer Down Under Ian Packer, Gordon Preece, 2012-08-30 If Protestants had saints Dietrich Bonhoeffer martyred under Hitler on April 9 1945 just days before the Allies reached his concentration camp would be one of the first canonised Not just his unsought martyr's death but his life's movement from privilege to growing identification with the suffering his courageous return from the safety and beckoning success of the US to Germany his work with the Confessing Church and more controversially with the underground resistance in the plot to assassinate Hitler all argue his case for canonisation Bonhoeffer is among ten twentieth century martyrs above the Great West Door at Westminster Cathedral where their portraits of ten tell more about the artists and their age than the saint and theirs the movement of their lives and the movements they belonged to or founded This is certainly true of Bonhoeffer and the Church of his anguished age This collection of essays is from Down Under for with the exception of the paper by UK theologian Keith Clements are all the papers by writers who live and work in the southern hemisphere They include former Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd South African theologian John de Gruchy and a number of Australian writers These include papers by historian John Moses and theologians Gordon Preece Brian Rosner Bruce Barber Max Champion and Neil Holm Kevin Rudd writes in this volume that Bonhoeffer is without doubt the man I admire most in the history of the twentieth century He was a man of faith He was a man of reason He was never a nationalist always an internationalist For tormented twenty first century humanity Bonhoeffer is still one of our best guides to that new humanity being birthed by the Spirit of Christ in the midst of those seeing from and suffering below A Little Child Shall Lead Them Johann Christoph Arnold, 1997 Pastor and family counselor Johann Christoph Arnold calls parents to recognize that parenthood is more than duty but is designed by God to be a privilege and blessing and an aid to drawing us closer to Himself Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking Unpopular Religion Erik Swenson,2013-05-16 Christianity is unpopular Many have come to view Christianity as a religion of intolerance where judgmental people gather to build walls They have come to see it as an irrational worldview held by people who have rejected reason And they have come to believe that Christianity is mostly irrelevant offering nothing to a broken dying world In Unpopular Religion Erik Swenson suggests that these negative views of Christianity are misconceptions At the same time he believes that the misconceptions have formed because the church has often misrepresented Jesus Erik tries to reconcile Christianity to the culture by confessing wrongdoing while also clarifying wrong perceptions Practicing Hope Jerry M. Ireland,Michelle L. K. Raven,2020-07-20 The greatest crisis is being separated from Christ In the constant swirl of human suffering the church has long wrestled with appropriate responses As crises come and go the need for the church s theological missiological and practical readiness remains so that people not only survive but thrive in the context of a crisis Practicing Hope brings together global scholars and practitioners who share and think broadly about the church s mission in a world rife with crises Rather than harmonizing the voices of the contributors to provide general guidelines for generic crisis response Practicing Hope allows the reader to hear multiple perspectives on complex issues such as sustainability empowerment human rights biblical principles and mission Dei mission of God These essays highlight that being separated from Christ is the focus that will keep the church from losing its raison d'être its reason for being This book provides a potent reminder that crises are not the end sometimes they are the beginning of something better In these chapters you will find stories of hope amid unimaginable darkness Practicing Hope describes what it really means not just in theory but in practice to be the salt of the earth and light of the world Matt 5 14 15 We hope that you will be inspired as Jesus said in the parable of the Good Samaritan to go and do likewise Good News About Injustice Gary A. Haugen,2009-09-08 This expanded edition of Gary Haugen s powerful book brings up to date his work in calling for the body of Christ to act to seek justice through the world Here you will find truth encouragement and concrete guidance on how ordinary Christians can rise up to seek justice throughout the world Scripture and Pluralism: Reading the Bible in the Religiously Plural Worlds of the Middle Ages and Renaissance Thomas Heffernan,Thomas E. Burman,2005-10-01 The Mediterranean and Western European sphere in the Ancient Medieval and Early Modern Periods was a world of complex and deeply rooted religious Pluralism Jews various sects of Christians Muslims and pagans all lived side by side and interacted regularly The essays in this volume explore what happened when Christians read the Bible faced with the challenges posed by this religious pluralism Topics covered include early Christianity s use of the Bible under persecution Arab Christian Biblical study within the Islamic World Jewish Christian scholarly interaction in the Twelfth Century Renaissance and the role of late medieval vernacular editions of the Bible in paving the way for the Reformation Contributors include Thomas E Burman Andrew Gow Sidney H Griffith Thomas J Heffernan Frans van Liere E Ann Matter Bernard McGinn Constant J Mews Michael A Signer Lesley Smith and Anne Marie Wolf Martyrdom and Literature in Early Modern England Susannah Brietz Monta, 2005-03-10 A comprehensive comparison of the representations of early modern Protestant and Catholic martyrs Good News About Injustice: 10th anniversary edition G HAUGEN, 2020-05-21 The good news about injustice is that God is against it God is in the business of using the unlikely to accomplish justice and mercy In this tenth anniversary edition of Gary Haugen's challenging and encouraging book he offers stories of courageous Christians who have stood up for justice in the face of human trafficking forced prostitution racial and religious persecution and torture This expanded edition brings up to date his work in calling for the body of Christ to act Throughout he provides concrete guidance on how ordinary Christians can rise up to seek justice throughout the world
