Marx And Other Four Letter Words:

Marx and Other Four-Letter Words Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2005-04-20 Karl Marx's classic definitions of class and society under capitalism are still widely used today. Ideas such as class, revolution, production and oppression are employed across a broad range of academic subjects reaching beyond politics, economics and sociology. Yet these concepts within a specifically Marxist framework are not always easy to understand. This book is an ideal student introduction that explains in clear and concise chapters the precise meaning and implications of each of Marx's key concepts. Furthermore, the contributors show how these ideas continue to be relevant and how they relate to modern society. The contributors include leading academics in the field of political science. Outlining clearly what each concept means, they move on to situate it within cutting edge contemporary political theory. Concepts include historical materialism, capitalism, class, the state, imperialism, the division of labour, oppression, production and reproduction, revolution, working class, internationalism, equality and democracy.

Marx and Other Four-Letter Words Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2005-04-20 A new look at the essence of Marxist theory questioning the interpretations made by Engels and Lenin. The impact of feminism on political concepts and debates Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2024-06-04 Many feminists have engaged with the man-made concepts and approaches of traditional political analysis to produce an increasingly sophisticated and wide-ranging body of thought. The starting point of this book is the belief that such work is not simply something for the girls; rather, it has profound and complex implications without which our understanding of political processes and ideas would be impoverished. This book provides an accessible overview and assessment of the impact of recent feminism by bringing together leading feminist and pro-feminist political theorists and analysts to focus on key concepts such as rationality, citizenship, democracy and democratisation, development and empowerment. Each chapter takes a mainstream concept and examines both the critical debates around it and feminist reactions/critiques. It then analyses the significance and implications of feminism for the concept, considers whether it can simply be extended to include women or whether it should be radically transformed or even abandoned, and assesses whether feminist input has become part of the mainstream debate or remains marginalised.

Marxism and Criminological Theory Mark Cowling, 2008-11-03 This volume looks at Marxist thought in criminology: the work of Willem Bonger, Georg Rusche and Otto Kirchheimer, and assesses the role of Marxist analysis in areas such as Critical Criminology and Left Realism. Arguing that Marxism is relevant in the post-Soviet era, it offers a toolkit of Marxist theories and how to use them.

Using Political Ideas Barbara Goodwin, 2016-12-19 Using Political Ideas is a unique blend of political philosophy, political theory and history of political thought. It combines a critique of the major ideologies of recent and contemporary society with an analysis of the ideas that form the very stuff of political debate. By exposing the interplay between ideas and ideologies, it shows why political opponents often speak at cross purposes and why rational agreement is so hard to achieve in politics. The sixth edition of this well-respected and widely known text will be welcomed by those interested in questions such as Is equality more important than personal freedom Does the majority have the right to dictate to the minority in multicultural society Is nationalism a progressive force in the world Politics does not stand still there are always new controversies and ideological conflicts and the climate of discussion changes The 6th edition of this best selling book is fully updated and includes a new chapter on authoritarian ideologies to reflect the growing extreme right wing politics in parts of Europe This edition also provides a variety of new learning features a comprehensive glossary detailed lists of further reading and a list of questions for discussion

Capitalism, Technology, Labor Greg Albo, Leo Panitch, Alan Zuege, 2020-08-04 The Socialist Register has been at the forefront of intellectual enquiry and strategic debate on the left for five decades This expertly curated collection analyzes technological innovation against the backdrop of the recurrent crises and forms of class struggle distinctive to capitalism As we enter what some term the fourth industrial revolution and both mainstream commentators and the left grapple with the implications of rapid technological development this volume is a timely and crucial resource for those looking to build a political strategy attentive to sweeping changes in how we produce goods and live our lives

Racism After Apartheid Vishwas Satgar, 2019-03-01 Racism after Apartheid volume four of the Democratic Marxism series brings together leading scholars and activists from around the world studying and challenging racism In eleven thematically rich and conceptually informed chapters the contributors interrogate the complex nexus of questions surrounding race and relations of oppression as they are played out in the global South and global North Their work challenges Marxism and anti racism to take these lived realities seriously and consistently struggle to build human solidarities

Transforming Classes Leo Panitch, Greg Albo, 2014-12-22 For more than half a century the Socialist Register has brought together some of the sharpest thinkers from around the globe to address the pressing issues of our time Founded by Ralph Miliband and John Saville in London in 1964 SR continues their commitment to independent and thought provoking analysis free of dogma or sectarian positions Transforming Classes is a compendium of socialist thought today and a clarifying account of class struggle in the early twenty first century from China to the United States

100 Years of Permanent Revolution Bill Dunn, Hugo Radice, 2006-05-20 One hundred years on from their first appearance in Leon Trotsky's Results and Prospects this is a critical re evaluation of two key Marxist theories uneven and combined development and permanent revolution It brings together a formidable array of Marxist intellectuals from across the world including Daniel Bensaid Michael Lwy Hillel Ticktin and Patrick Bond Marx saw societies progressing through distinct historical stages feudal bourgeois and communist Trotsky advanced this model by considering how countries at different stages of development influence each other Developed countries colonise less developed countries and exploit their people and resources Elsewhere even as many were kept in poverty the influence of foreign capital and state led industrialisation produced novel economic forms and prospects for political alliances and change The contributors show how 100 years on from its original publication Trotsky's theories are hugely useful for understanding today's globalised economy dominated by

US imperialism Sexuality, Gender and Power Anna G. Jónasdóttir, Valerie Bryson, Kathleen B. Jones, 2011 Including studies of the sexual self and sexual subjectivities socio political processes of normativization and social structures of sexuality and gender in national and transnational contexts this book offers a view of sexuality as a broad and complex dimension of historically changing social cultural and human material reality EBL
