Marx's Proletariat The Making Of A Myth:

Marx's Proletariat David W. Lovell, 1988-01-01

Marx's Proletariat (RLE Marxism) David W. Lovell, 2015-04-24

George Orwell wrote in Nineteen Eighty Four that If there is hope it lies in the proles A century earlier Marx was unequivocal the future belonged to the proletariat Today such confidence might seem misplaced The proletariat has not yet fulfilled Marx's expectations and seems unlikely ever to do so How could Marx have entertained the notion that the proletariat would emancipate humanity from capitalism and from class rule itself This book first published in 1988 attempts an explanation by examining the sources and development of Marx's concept of the proletariat It contends that this was not only a crucial element in Marx's theory but a significant departure in socialist thought By examining this concept in detail the book uncovers a major contradiction in Marxian thought although the proletariat is assigned a momentous task it is chiefly depicted as the class of suffering which is why historically it has preferred security to enterprise The Proletarian Dream Sabine Hake, 2017-09-11 The proletariat never existed but it had a profound effect on modern German culture and society As the most radicalized part of the industrial working class the proletariat embodied the critique of capitalism and the promise of socialism But as a collective imaginary the proletariat also inspired the fantasies desires and attachments necessary for transforming the working class into a historical subject and an emotional community This book reconstructs this complicated and contradictory process through the countless treatises essays memoirs novels poems songs plays paintings photographs and films produced in the name of the proletariat The Proletarian Dream reads these forgotten archives as part of an elusive collective imaginary that modeled what it meant and even more important how it felt to claim the name proletarian with pride hope and conviction By emphasizing the formative role of the aesthetic the eighteen case studies offer a new perspective on working class culture as a oppositional culture Such a new perspective is bound to shed new light on the politics of emotion during the main years of working class mobilizations and as part of more recent populist movements and cultures of resentment Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures 2018

Powerless Fictions? Ricardo Miguel-Alfonso, 2023-04-12 Postmodern Studies deals with any aspect of postmodernism or of postmodernity and the postmodern in relation to literature Marxism and Phenomenology Bryan Smyth, Richard Westerman, 2021-10-25 Marxism and Phenomenology The Dialectical Horizons of Critique edited by Bryan Smyth and Richard Westerman offers new perspectives on the possibility of a philosophical outlook that combines Marxism and phenomenology in the critique of capitalism Although Marxism's focus on impersonal social structures and phenomenology's concern with lived experience can make these traditions appear conceptually incompatible the potential critical force of a theoretical reconciliation inspired several attempts in the twentieth century to articulate a phenomenological Marxism Updating and extending this approach the contributors to this volume identify and develop new and previously overlooked connections between the traditions offering new perspectives on Marx Husserl and Heidegger exploring themes such as alienation reification and ecology and examining the intersection of Marxism and phenomenology in figures such as Michel Henry Walter Benjamin and Frantz Fanon These glimpses of a productive reconciliation of the respective strengths of phenomenology and Marxism offer promising possibilities for illuminating and resolving the increasingly intense social crises of capitalism in the twenty first century

The Red Flag David Priestland,2016-05-03 The best and the most accessible one volume history of communism now available A far reaching vividly written account Foreign Affairs In The Red Flag Oxford professor David Priestland tells the epic story of a movement that has taken root in dozens of countries across two hundred years from its birth after the French Revolution to its ideological maturity in nineteenth century Germany to its rise to dominance and subsequent fall in the twentieth century Beginning with the first modern Communists in the age of Robespierre Priestland examines the motives of thinkers and leaders including Marx Engels Lenin Stalin Castro Che Guevara Mao Ho Chi Minh Gorbachev and many others Priestland also shows how Communism in all its varieties appealed to different societies for different reasons in some as a response to inequalities and in others more out of a desire to catch up with the West But paradoxically while destroying one web of inequality Communist leaders were simultaneously weaving another It was this dynamic together with widespread economic failure and an escalating loss of faith in the system that ultimately destroyed Soviet Communism itself At a time when global capitalism is in crisis and powerful new political forces have arisen to confront Western democracy The Red Flag is essential reading if we are to apply the lessons of the past to navigating the future Detailed and scholarly but written in lively prose this is a rich satisfying account of the most successful utopian political movement in history Publishers Weekly starred review

Stalinism and the Politics of Mobilization David Priestland,2007-02-01 Stalinism and the Politics of Mobilization offers a new interpretation of Bolshevik ideology examines its relationship with Soviet politics between 1917 and 1939 and sheds new light on the origins of the political violence of the late 1930s While it challenges older views that the Stalinist system and the Terror were the product of a coherent Marxist Leninist blueprint imposed by a group of committed ideologues it argues that ideas mattered in Bolshevik politics and that there are strong continuities between the politics of the revolutionary period and those of the 1930s By exploring divisions within the party over several issues including class the relations between elites and masses and economic policy David Priestland shows how a number of ideological trends emerged within Bolshevik politics and how they were related to political and economic interests and strategies He also argues that central to the launching of the Terror was the leadership s commitment to a strategy of mobilization and to a view of politics that ultimately derived from the left Bolshevism of the revolutionary period

Karl Marx Prince of Darkness George Fabian,2011-10-25 Totality Inside Out Kevin Floyd,Jen Hedler Phillis,Sarika Chandra,2022-01-18 However divergent their analyses may be in other ways some prominent anti capitalist critics have remained critical of contemporary debates over reparative justice for groups historically oppressed and marginalized on the basis of race gender sexual identity sexual preference and or ability arguing that the most these struggles can hope to produce is a more diversity friendly capital Meanwhile scholars of gender and sexuality as well as race and ethnic studies maintain that by elevating the socioeconomic above other logics of domination anti capitalist thought fails to acknowledge specific forms and experiences of subjugation The thinkers and activists who appear in Totality Inside Out reject this divisive logic altogether Instead they aim for a more expansive analysis of our contemporary moment to uncover connected sites of political struggle over racial and economic justice materialist feminist and queer critique climate change and aesthetic value The re imagined account of capitalist totality that appears in this volume illuminates the material interlinkages between discrepant social phenomena forms of oppression and group histories offering multiple entry points for readers who are interested in exploring how capitalism shapes integral relations within the social whole Contributors Brent Ryan Bellamy Sarah Brouillette Sarika Chandra Chris Chen Joshua Clover Tim Kreiner Arthur Scarritt Zoe Sutherland Marina Vishmidt Karl Marx Frank W.
