Painting in Spain in the Age of Enlightenment Ronda Kasl, Suzanne L. Stratton, Spanish Institute (New York, N.Y.), 1997 Distributed for Spanish Institute Indianapolis Museum of Art Exhibition catalog Painting in Spain in the Age of Enlightenment Ronda Kasl, Indianapolis Museum of Art (Indianapolis, Ind.), 1997 Art and Religion in Eighteenth-Century Europe Nigel Aston, 2009-07-15 Eighteenth century Europe witnessed monumental upheavals in both the Catholic and Protestant faiths and the repercussions rippled down to the churches religious art forms Nigel Aston now chronicles here the intertwining of cultural and institutional turmoil during this pivotal century The sustained popularity of religious art in the face of competition from increasingly prevalent secular artworks lies at the heart of this study Religious art staked out new spaces of display in state institutions palaces and private collections the book shows as well as taking advantage of patronage from monarchs such as Louis XIV and George III who funded religious art in an effort to enhance their monarchical prestige Aston also explores the motivations and exhibition practices of private collectors and analyzes changing Catholic and Protestant attitudes toward art The book also examines purchases made by corporate patrons such as charity hospitals and religious confraternities and considers what this reveals about the changing religiosity of the era as well An in depth historical study Art and Religion in Eighteenth Century Europe will be essential for art history and religious studies scholars alike Women, Art and the Politics of Identity in Eighteenth-Century Europe Melissa Hyde, Jennifer Milam, 2017-03-02 The eighteenth century is recognized as a complex period of dramatic epistemic shifts that would have profound effects on the modern world Paradoxically the art of the era continues to be a relatively neglected field within art history While women s private lives their involvement with cultural production the project of Enlightenment and the public sphere have been the subjects of ground breaking historical and literary studies in recent decades women s engagement with the arts remains one of the richest and most under explored areas for scholarly investigation This collection of new essays by specialist authors addresses women s activities as patrons and as patronized artists over the course of the century It provides a much needed examination with admirable breadth and variety of women s artistic production and patronage during the eighteenth century By opening up the specific problems and conflicts inherent in women s artistic involvements from the perspective of what was at stake for the eighteenth century women themselves it also acts as a corrective to the generalizing and stereotyping about the prominence of those women which is too often present in current day literature Some essays are concerned with how women s involvement in the arts allowed them to fashion identities for themselves whether national political religious intellectual artistic or gender based and how such self fashioning in turn enabled them to negotiate or intervene in the public domains of culture and politics where The Woman Question was so hotly debated Other essays examine how men s patronage of women also served as a vehicle for self fashioning for both artist and sponsor Artists and patrons discussed include Carriera Queen Lovisa Ulrike and Chardin the Bourbon Princesses Mlle Clermont Mme Ad la de and Nattier the Duchess of

Osuna and Goya Marie Antoinette and Vig e Lebrun Labille Guiard Queen Carolina of Naples Prince Stanislaus Poniatowski of Poland and Kauffman David and his students Mesdames Benoist Lavoisier and Mongez A Guide to Eighteenth-Century Art Linda Walsh,2016-08-29 A Guide to Eighteenth Century Art offers an introductory overview of the art artists and artistic movements of this exuberant period in European art and the social economic philosophical and political debates that helped shape them Covers both artistic developments and critical approaches to the period by leading contemporary scholars Uses an innovative framework to emphasize the roles of tradition modernity and hierarchy in the production of artistic works of the period Reveals the practical issues connected with the production sale public and private display of art of the period Assesses eighteenth century art s contribution to what we now refer to as modernity Includes numerous illustrations and is accompanied by online resources examining art produced outside Europe and its relationship with the West along with other useful resources Goya in the Norton Simon Museum Juliet Wilson-Bareau,2016-01-01 This book is the first to examine the extraordinary Goya collection which includes more than 1 400 prints a drawing and three paintings in the Norton Simon Museum The collection includes prints from various series and editions treating a range of subjects such as religious iconography landscapes portraits and social satire Lushly illustrated and authored by a distinguished Goya scholar this catalogue is an essential guide to a treasure trove of the artist s works A Concise History of Spain William D. Phillips,Carla Rahn Phillips,2016 This updated edition traces Spain s history from prehistoric times to the present focusing particularly on culture society politics and personalities Francisco Goya Sarah Carr-Gomm,2019-12-09 Francisco Goya 1746 1828 was recognised from a very early age as the leading artist in Spain rising to become the official portraitist of the Spanish Court He was famed for the quality and speed at which he executed his drawings and his etchings are of extraordinary delicacy His use of chiaroscuro in his dark intense paintings influenced many artists including Manet This monograph presents the essential works of this pioneering artist today considered the father of modern art A Concise History of Spain William D. Phillips,Carla Rahn Phillips,2010-07 Engaging history of the rich cultural social and political life of Spain from prehistoric times to the present Cosmopolitanism in Mexican Visual Culture María Fernández,2014-01-06 Since the colonial era Mexican art has emerged from an ongoing process of negotiation between the local and the global which frequently involves invention synthesis and transformation of diverse discursive and artistic traditions In this pathfinding book Mar a Fern ndez uses the concept of cosmopolitanism to explore this important aspect of Mexican art in which visual culture and power relations unite the local and the global the national and the international the universal and the particular She argues that in Mexico as in other colonized regions colonization constructed power dynamics and forms of violence that persisted in the independent nation state Accordingly Fern ndez presents not only the visual qualities of objects but also the discourses ideas desires and practices that are fundamental to the very existence of visual objects Fern ndez organizes episodes in the history of Mexican art and architecture ranging from the seventeenth century to the end of the twentieth century around the consistent but unacknowledged historical theme of cosmopolitanism allowing readers to discern relationships among various historical periods and works that are new and yet simultaneously dependent on their predecessors She uses case studies of art and architecture produced in response to government commissions to demonstrate that established visual forms and meanings in Mexican art reflect and inform desires expectations memories and ways of being in the world in short that visual culture and cosmopolitanism are fundamental to processes of subjectification and identity

The Spanish Eye Robert Havard, 2007 The guiding principle of this title is that the sister arts of painting and poetry are mutually illuminating their common currency being the visual image Five masters El Greco Velazquez Goya Picasso and Dali are discussed with a view to distinguishing what is peculiarly Spanish in their way of looking at reality

Urban Space as Heritage in Late Colonial Cuba Paul Niell, 2015-05-15 According to national legend Havana Cuba was founded under the shade of a ceiba tree whose branches sheltered the island's first Catholic mass and meeting of the town council cabildo in 1519 The founding site was first memorialized in 1754 by the erection of a baroque monument in Havana's central Plaza de Armas which was reconfigured in 1828 by the addition of a neoclassical work El Templete Viewing the transformation of the Plaza de Armas from the new perspective of heritage studies this book investigates how late colonial Cuban society narrated Havana's founding to valorize Spanish imperial power and used the monuments to underpin a local sense of place and cultural authenticity civic achievement and social order Paul Niell analyzes how Cubans produced heritage at the site of the symbolic ceiba tree by endowing the collective urban space of the plaza with a cultural authority that used the past to validate various place identities in the present Niell's close examination of the extant forms of the 1754 and 1828 civic monuments which include academic history paintings neoclassical architecture and idealized sculpture in tandem with period documents and printed texts reveals a dissonance of heritage in other words a lack of agreement as to the works significance and use He considers the implications of this dissonance with respect to a wide array of interests in late colonial Havana showing how heritage as a dominant cultural discourse was used to manage and even disinherit certain sectors of the colonial population

Architectural Temperance Victor Deupi,2015-03-05 Architectural Temperance examines relations between Bourbon Spain and papal Rome 1700 1759 through the lens of cultural politics With a focus on key Spanish architects sent to study in Rome by the Bourbon Kings the book also discusses the establishment of a program of architectural education at the newly founded Real Academia de Bellas Artes de San Fernando in Madrid Victor Deupi explores why a powerful nation like Spain would temper its own building traditions with the more cosmopolitan trends associated with Rome often at the expense of its own national and regional traditions Through the inclusion of previously unpublished documents and images that shed light on the theoretical debates which shaped eighteenth century architecture in Rome and Madrid Architectural Temperance provides readers with new insights into the cultural history of early modern Spain

Mexican Costumbrismo Mey-Yen Moriuchi,2018-04-03 The years following Mexican independence in 1821 were critical to the development of social racial and national identities The visual arts played a decisive role in this process of self definition Mexican Costumbrismo reorients current understanding of this key period in the history of Mexican art by focusing on a distinctive genre of painting that emerged between 1821 and 1890 costumbrismo In contrast to the neoclassical work favored by the Mexican academy costumbrista artists portrayed the quotidian lives of the lower to middle classes their clothes food dwellings and occupations Based on observations of similitude and difference costumbrista imagery constructed stereotypes of behavioral and biological traits associated with distinct racial and social classes In doing so Mey Yen Moriuchi argues these works engaged with notions of universality and difference contributed to the documentation and reification of social and racial types and transformed the way Mexicans saw themselves as well as how other nations saw them during a time of rapid change for all aspects of national identity Carefully researched and featuring more than thirty full color exemplary reproductions of period work Moriuchi s study is a provocative art historical examination of costumbrismo s lasting impact on Mexican identity and history E book editions have been made possible through support of the Art History Publication Initiative AHPI a collaborative grant from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp,2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readersare given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Manet/Velázquez Gary Tinterow, Geneviève Lacambre, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Musée d'Orsay, 2003 Here approximately two hundred works by French and Spanish artists chart the development of this cultural influence and map a fascinating shift in the paradigm of painting from Idealism to Realism from Italy to Spain from Renaissance to Baroque Above all these images demonstrate how direct contact with Spanish painting fired the imagination of nineteenth century French artists and brought about the triumph of Realism in the 1860s and with it a foundation for modern art BOOK JACKET
